STATE BAR COURT OF CALIFORNIA HEARING DEPARTMENT 1149 S. Hill St., 5th Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90015	FOR CLERK'S USE ONLY FILED APR 27 2011 STATE BAR COURT CLERK'S OFFICE LOS ANGELES
In the Matter of: PHILIP ERIC MYERS, Member No. 77543, A Member of the State Bar.	Case No(s). 08-O-14901 ORDER OF ENTRY OF DEFAULT (RULE 201-FAILURE TO APPEAR) AND ORDER OF INVOLUNTARY INACTIVE ENROLLMENT

Upon the respondent's failure to appear as a party at the trial in the above-entitled matter, and upon order of the court, PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the respondent is hereby notified that:

> "Your default has been entered because of your failure to appear at the trial in this proceeding. The facts set forth in the notice of disciplinary charges have been deemed admitted and discipline may be recommended or imposed upon you based upon the admitted facts. You may not participate further in these proceedings unless and until your default is set aside on motion timely made under the prescribed grounds. See rules 200 et seq., Rules of Procedure for State Bar Court Proceedings."
>
> "In light of the entry of your default, if the discipline imposed by the Supreme Court in this proceeding includes a period of actual suspension, you will remain suspended from the practice of law for at least the period of time specified by the Supreme Court. In addition, the actual suspension will continue until you have requested, and the State Bar Court has granted, a motion for termination of the actual suspension. As a condition for terminating the actual suspension, the State Bar Court may place you on probation and require you to comply with such conditions of probation as the State Bar Court deems appropriate. See rule 205, Rules of Procedure for State Bar Court Proceedings."
> "Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 6007(e), upon entry of the respondent's default, the Court shall order the involuntary inactive enrollment of a respondent in a disciplinary proceeding if the Court determines that the conditions in section 6007(e)(1) have been met. See rules 500 et seq., Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California."

The parties are hereby notified that any and all previously scheduled conferences, except status conferences, are vacated. Any previously set trial date shall proceed as a default hearing. No further notices or pleadings shall be served upon Respondent except for any request for review filed by the State Bar and a copy of the decision(s) of the State Bar Court.
