| STATE BAR COURT OF CALIFORNIA HEARING DEPARTMENT 845 S. Figueroa Street, 3rd Floor Los Angeles, CA 90017 | FOR CLERK'S USE ONLY:  FILED  FEB 23 2017 STATE BAR COURT CLERK'S OFFICE LOS ANGELES  |
| In the Matter of: ROBERT H. SACK, Member No.:165033, A Member of the State Bar. | Case No(s): 00-O-13349, 00-O-13651, 00-O-14522, 00-O-14675, 02-O-11677 (S147606); and 07-O-13898 (S184797) ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO PAY COSTS |

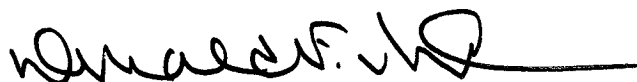

Respondent is the object of a number of various orders by this court requiring him to pay significant money, either in restitution or as disciplinary costs. At the same time, he has long been ineligible to practice law in this state. This court is well-convinced that he is unable to come even close to meeting all of those obligations, or any substantial portion of them, without significant financial hardship to his struggling family. In 2016, this court delayed for six months his obligation to pay the $1,000 installment due that year, hoping at that time that an improving economy would shine the light of good fortune on Respondent and his family. Regretfully, that light remained less than dim, resulting in the court subsequently providing Respondent with complete relief from the installment payment due last year.

Respondent now seeks an extension of the time for him to make the $1,000 cost installment payment due this year. In support of his request he again submitted a financial statement demonstrating financial hardship and also provided a declaration describing the costs recently incurred by him in defending an unsuccessful effort by the State Bar to accuse him of mortgage assistance fraud. That effort was rejected by the Review Department of this court last month. While Respondent is apparently entitled to recover those costs from the State Bar, the costs have not yet been paid and apparently will not be paid prior to the deadline for Respondent's current installment payment.

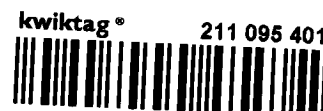

Good cause having been demonstrated, Respondent's motion for an extension of the deadline for this year's $1,000 installment payment is GRANTED. The deadline for making that payment is now extended to the same deadline as the installment payment due in 2018.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: February 23, 2017
