In the Matter of: ANDREA SELENE BURGER Member No.: 173351 A Member of the State Bar	Case No(s): 02-C14879 MINUTE ORDER EXTENDING TIME TO PAY COSTS NUNC PRO TUNC

GOOD CAUSE has been shown to modify and extend the time for Respondent to pay the costs recommended by this court to be paid and so ordered by the Supreme Court. Accordingly, the costs that remain outstanding will now be paid in two equal installments over the two billing cycles beginning in 2012. More specifically, half of the disciplinary costs must be paid prior to February 1, 2012; and the remaining half of the costs must be paid prior to February 1, 2013. If Respondent fails to pay either installment payments more than 10 days after its due date without the prior written approval of the State Bar or a further order of this court, the remaining unpaid balance of the costs will be due immediately and be enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.

Because it was neither the intent nor desire of this court to have Respondent either be placed on or restored to suspended status if she had not paid all of these costs prior to the effective date of the Supreme Court's order, the instant order modifying her obligation to pay costs is to be effective, nunc pro tunc, on the same date that the Supreme Court's order became effective and thereby vacate the prior enrollment of Respondent as suspended from October 14, 2011 through October 17, 2011.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: November 20, 2011
