TO ALL PARTIES AND COUNSEL IN THE ABOVE ENTITLED MATTER:

On April 21, 2010, petitioner Jonathan Daniel Newman sought an extension of time to pay the Client Security Fund (CSF) reimbursements and to comply with the order assessing disciplinary costs based on financial hardship, in a total amount of $92,644.53. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 282.) Petitioner proposes to pay the CSF reimbursements ($86,150.73) and costs ($6,493.80) in monthly installments, commencing June 2010 and until May 2020.

On May 11, 2010, Deputy Trial Counsel Mark Hartman of the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California (State Bar) filed a response. The State Bar does not oppose an extension of two years for petitioner to pay the costs of $6,493.80. But because judgment has not yet been entered against petitioner, petitioner's request for relief from CSF assessments is premature at this time. (Rules Prof. Conduct, rule 285; California Rules of Court, rule 9.23; Bus. & Prof. Code, § 6140.5.)

In view of petitioner's financial hardship, good cause appearing and the prematurity of his request for the compromise of a disciplinary order requiring reimbursement of the CSF, the court orders as follows:

1. Petitioner's request for extension of time to pay the disciplinary costs of $6,493.80 is GRANTED in that the time during which to pay the costs be extended to 36 monthly installments, due on the first of each month. Beginning on August 1, 2010, petitioner must pay monthly disciplinary costs in the amount of $185 for 36 consecutive months, until costs are paid in full. It is also ordered that if petitioner fails to pay any installment within the time provided herein or as may be modified by the State Bar Court pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 6086.10, subdivision (c), the remaining balance of the costs is due and enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 286.)
2. Petitioner's request to extend time during which to pay the CSF reimbursements of $86,150.73 is DENIED without prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
