The provisions in the stayed and actual suspensions regarding the submission of evidence of successful completion of the specified courses and of a written statement from her mental health care provider were in effect until October 27,2001, and were to be complied with by that date as recommended by the State Bar Court in its Order Approving Stipulation filed on March 16, 2000, as modified by their order filed April 26,2000, and as approved by the Supreme Court in their July 18, 2000, Order.

 - d. to provide medical waivers and access to all medical records upon request of the State Bar Probation Unit.
 - 4. The July 18, 2000, Order became effective August 17, 2000.
- 5. On September 26, 2000, Probation Deputy Yolanda Acosta ("Acosta") of the Probation Unit of the Office of Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California ("Probation Unit") wrote a letter to Respondent in which Acosta reminded Respondent of certain terms and conditions of her suspension and probation imposed pursuant to the July 18, 2000, Order. Acosta also specifically advised Respondent of Respondent's obligation to file quarterly reports, with the first due on October 10, 2000, and that failure to timely comply with the terms and conditions of probation could lead to a new disciplinary proceeding. Enclosed with the September 26, 2000, letter to Respondent were, among other things, copies of the July 18, 2000, Order, along with the April 26, 2000 State Bar Modification Order, the relevant portion of the Stipulation setting forth the conditions of Respondent's probation, Rules 580 and 581 Rules of Procedure, notice of counsel representation, proof of payment sheet, an affidavit form, a Quarterly Report form and Instruction sheet, and a Multi-State Responsibility Examination schedule. A telephone number was also included so that Respondent could obtain information regarding the State Bar Ethics School and the State Bar Client Trust Account Record-Keeping Course schedules.

- 6. On or about September 26, 2000, Acosta's letter was mailed to Respondent via the United States Postal Service, first class postage prepaid, in a sealed envelope addressed to Respondent at his official State Bar membership records address. The September 26, 2000, letter was not returned as undeliverable by the United States Postal Service.
- 7. Respondent did not complete the State Bar Ethics School by October 27, 2001, as specified in the Order. Respondent did complete the State Bar Ethics School on April 18,2002.
- 8. Respondent did not complete the Client Trust Account Record-Keeping Course by October 27, 2001, as specified in the Order. Respondent did complete the Client Trust Account Record-Keeping Course on August 16, 2002.
- 9. Respondent did not furnish any evidence to the Probation Unit that she obtained psychiatric or psychological help/treatment from a duly licensed psychiatrist, psychologist, or clinical social worker a minimum of one (1) time per month beginning September 17, 2000 and Respondent did not furnish the Probation Unit with a written statement from her mental health provider that she was no longer in need of treatment or able to practice law without being a threat of harm to her clients or to the public by October 27, 2001, as specified in the order. Respondent did submit the written statement to the Probation Department on December 10, 2001.
- 10. At all times herein, Respondent was under the mistaken belief that she had complied with all the terms and conditions that had deadlines with reporting requirements. When informed by Probation Deputy Shuntinee Brinson of the Probation Unit that Respondent had not complied, Respondent diligently worked with Ms. Brinson to come into compliance by providing statements from her mental health care provider and immediately registering for the State Bar Ethics School and Client Trust Account Record-Keeping Course.

Conclusions of Law

By not completing the State Bar Ethics School by October 27, 2001, as specified in the Supreme Court's July 18, 2000 Order, not completing the Client Trust Account Record-Keeping Course by October 27, 2001, as specified in the Supreme Court's July 18, 2000 Order, and not furnishing any evidence to the Probation Unit that she obtained psychiatric or psychological help/treatment from a duly licensed psychiatrist, psychologist, or clinical social worker a minimum of one (1) time per month beginning September 17, 2000 and not furnishing the Probation Unit with a written statement from her mental health provider that she was no longer in need of treatment or able to practice law without being a threat of harm to her clients or to the public by October 27, 2001, as specified in the Supreme Court's July 18, 2000 Order, Respondent failed to comply with the terms and conditions attached to her disciplinary probation and wilfully violated Business and Professions Code Section 6068(k).

PENDING PROCEEDINGS

The disclosure date referred to on page one, paragraph A.(6) was August 12, 2003.

COST OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

Respondent that as of August 11, 2003, the estimated prosecution costs in this matter are approximately $3,398.00. Respondent acknowledges that this figure is an estimate only and it does not include State Bar costs which will be included in any final cost assessment. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

The parties stipulate that the costs are to paid in three equal amounts, one third being added to and becoming a part of the membership fees for each of the years 2005, 2006 and 2007.

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE

Standard 2.6(a) provides that culpability of a member of a violation of Business and Professions Code section 6068(k) shall result in disbarment or suspension depending on the gravity of the offense or the harm, if any, to the victim with due regard to the purposes of imposing discipline set forth in standard 1.3.

In regard to case law, in In the Matter of Charles Hunter (Review Dept. 1994) 3 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 63, the Respondent violated three of his probation conditions by failing to file a quarterly report, failing to make himself available to his probation monitor to review the terms and conditions of his probation, and failing to maintain his current address with State Bar Membership Records. The court ordered his probation revoked, set aside the previously ordered stay of his three year suspension, and imposed a three year actual suspension. The court did not find any mitigating circumstances. In regard to aggravating circumstances, Respondent had two prior impositions of discipline.

AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES

Under Standard 1.2(b)(i), Respondent has a prior record of discipline. In Case No. 91-O-06441, etc., on October 27, 1996, Respondent received 5 years stayed suspension and until, 5 years probation with conditions, and 3 years actual suspension.

In Case No. 90-O-14557, on December 12, 1993, Respondent received a 2 year stayed suspension and probation with 90 days actual suspension.

In Case No. 97-PM-15229, on August 18,2000, Respondent received a 3 year stayed suspension, 3 years probation with 2 years actual with restitution.

Under Standard 1.2(b)(iii), Respondent's current misconduct evidences multiple acts of wrongdoing or demonstrates a pattern of misconduct as Respondent has previously received discipline for violation of court orders in Case No. 97-PM-15229 and 94-N-10774 (consolidated with Case No. 91-O-06441.

MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES

Under Standard 1.2(e)(v), Respondent displayed spontaneous candor and cooperation to the victims of her misconduct and to the State Bar during disciplinary investigation and proceedings.

Under Standard 1.2(e)(vii), Respondent promptly took objective steps spontaneously demonstrating remorse by completing State Bar Ethics School, Client Trust Account School and providing the Probation Unit with evidence of completion of treatment by her mental health care provider to atone for the consequences of her misconduct.
