TO ALL PARTIES AND COUNSEL IN THE ABOVE ENTITLED MATTER:

On October 12, 2010, the Office of Probation of the State Bar of California, represented by supervising attorney Terrie Goldade (Office of Probation), asked that a probation condition of respondent Charles Martin Barrett be modified – requiring him to make monthly restitution payments. (Supreme Court order No. S164738.)

On October 18, 2010, in response to the Office of Probation's request, respondent proposed to pay the entire amounts due to all of the individuals (and the State Bar's Client Security Fund, if owed) on or before January 15, 2011, and to provide proof of payment to the Office of Probation on or before January 29, 2011. (Currently, respondent's proof for full payment is not due until October 22, 2011.)

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, the court finds respondent's proposed restitution payment plan reasonable and hereby ORDERS that the probation condition of restitution be modified, such that respondent must pay the entire amounts of restitution (principal and interest) due to all of the individuals (or reimburse the Client Security Fund, to the extent of any payment from the fund to those individuals, in accordance with Business and Professions Code section 6140.5) on or before January 15, 2011, and furnish proof to the State Bar's Office of Probation on or before January 31, 2011.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
