STIPULATION RE FACTS, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND DISPOSITION

IN THE MATTER OF:

CHARLES B. GRAFF

CASE NUMBER(S):

05-O-03498-RAP [05-O-04068]

FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

Respondent admits that the following facts are true and that he is culpable of violations of the specified statutes and Rules of Professional Conduct.

Case No. 05-O-03498

Facts

- 1. On or about February 4, 2005, Phillip H. Esnayra ("Phillip") hired Respondent to probate the estate of his father, Jesse Esnayra ("Mr. Esnayra"). Pursuant to the Attorney Client Retainer Agreement, Phillip gave Respondent a check for $2,844 ($2,000 advanced fees and $844 in advanced costs), which Respondent negotiated.
- 2. On or about June 6, 2005, Phillip met Respondent at Respondent's office, terminated Respondent and demanded a full refund after Respondent apologized for providing Phillip with no services of value. At the June 6, 2005 meeting, Respondent agreed to refund to Phillip the $844 in advanced costs that Phillip had provided to Respondent.
- 3. On or about June 13, 2005, Phillip mailed a letter to Respondent terminating his services and demanding a full refund. Respondent received the letter.
- 4. Respondent did not respond to Phillip's letter and did not refund the uncarned fees and costs to Phillip until August 3, 2005, after Phillip filed for fee arbitration.
- 5. On or about July 20, 2005, the State Bar opened an investigation, Case No. 05-O-03498, pursuant to a complaint filed by Phillip (the "Esnayra matter").
- 6. On or about August 2, 2005, Phillip requested fee arbitration with the Riverside County Bar Association. On or about the same day, the Riverside County Bar Association mailed a "Notice of Appointment of Arbitration Panel" ("Notice") to Respondent. Respondent received the Notice.

7. On or about August 3, 2005, Respondent mailed a letter to Phillip enclosing a check for $2,844 and Phillip's original documents.

Conclusions of Law

By not filing the probate petition for Phillip between February 4, 2005, and June 6, 2005, Respondent intentionally, recklessly, or repeatedly failing to perform legal services with competence, in violation of rule 3-110(A) of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

By failing to refund the unearned fees and costs from June 7, 2005 until Phillip requested fee arbitration on August 2, 2005, Respondent failed to refund promptly any part of a fee paid in advance that has not been earned, in wilful violation of rule 3-700(D)(2) of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

Case No. 05-O-04068

Facts

- 7. On or about October 4, 2004, Connie Silva ("Silva") met with Respondent regarding her student loans. Previously, Silva's student loans were apparently mischaracterized as dischargeable in a Chapter 7 bankruptcy, and were purportedly discharged. However, at that time that she initially met with Respondent, Silva was being dunned by the creditor on the loans. Silva hired Respondent to negotiate with the creditor to stop the dunning. On or about October 4, 2004, Silva agreed to pay Respondent $1,000 for advanced fees and costs to begin the work and to pay additional fees as needed for additional work.
- 8. On or about October 11, 2004, Silva gave Respondent a check for $1,000 for advanced fees and costs, which he negotiated.
- 9. Between on or about October 11 and 31, 2004, Silva called Respondent's office on three or four occasions because he had not contacted her as he promised during their meeting on or about October 4, 2004. Respondent was unavailable when she called, and therefore, Silva left messages for him to call her with his assistant. Respondent did not return any of the messages that she left for him to call her.
- 10. On or about November 8, 2004, Silva went to Respondent's office without an appointment. Silva found Respondent at his office and had a brief meeting with him. Respondent told Silva that the issues regarding her student loans would be resolved by February or March 2005 in the bankruptcy court, but that he would require additional fees of $1,447, which included filing fees of $47. Silva did not give Respondent the requested $1,447.

- 11. On or about December 2, 2004, Respondent met with Silva. Respondent told Silva that he would file a motion to re-open her bankruptcy. Respondent asked for an additional $1,447, which included petition filing fees of $209 and motion filing fees of $47. On or about December 10, 2004, Silva gave Respondent a check for $1,447, which he negotiated.
- 12. Between on or about December 3 and 15, 2004, Silva called Respondent's office on two or three occasions. Respondent was unavailable when she called, and therefore, Silva left messages for him to call her with the same assistant. Respondent did not return any of the messages that she left for him to call her.
- 13. On or about April 7, 2005, Silva called Respondent and set up a meeting for that day. During the meeting, Silva asked for an accounting of the $2,447 that she had already paid him.
- 14. Between on or about April 8, 2005 and May 9, 2005, Silva called Respondent's office on three or four occasions. Respondent was unavailable when she called, and therefore, Silva left one or two messages for him to call her with Respondent's new assistant. When Respondent did not return those messages, Silva left one or two messages with Respondent's new assistant requesting a full refund and the return of her file. Respondent did not provide a refund, return the file, or otherwise communicate with Silva.
- 15. In or about the first week of May 2005, Silva's son called and spoke with Respondent. During their conversation, Silva's son demanded and Respondent agreed to provide a full refund.
- 16. On or about May 9, 2005, Silva mailed a letter to Respondent complaining that he had failed to represent her, i.e., negotiate payment of her student loans or file any documents with the bankruptcy court, and demanded, inter alia, a full refund. Respondent received the letter.
- 17. Respondent did not respond to Silva's letter and did not refund the unearmed fees until December 8, 2005, after Silva complained to the State Bar.
- 18. Respondent wrote at least one letter to the creditor on the student loans in or about December 2004; however, he provided no services of value to Silva towards negotiating payment of the student loans and did not file bankruptcy to discharge the student loans between October 4, 2004 and May 9, 2005.
- 19. On or about July 6, 2005, Silva filed a complaint with the State Bar against Respondent.

- 20. On or about August 18, 2005, a State Bar Complaint Analyst mailed a letter to Respondent regarding the complaint that Silva had filed against him. The Complaint Analyst's letter requested that Respondent respond in writing to specified allegations of misconduct made by Silva against Respondent. Respondent received the letter.
- 21. On or about August 30, 2005, Respondent mailed a letter to the Complaint Analyst stating, inter alia, that he would refund the full amount Silva had paid.
- 22. On or about September 27, 2005, the State Bar opened an investigation, Case No. 05-O-04068, pursuant to the July 6, 2005 complaint filed by Silva (the "Silva matter.")
- 23. On or about November 18, 2005, a State Bar Deputy Trial Counsel ("DTC") mailed a letter to Respondent regarding the Silva matter titled "Notice of Intent to File Notice of Disciplinary Charges," which informed Respondent that the State Bar was considering disciplinary action. Respondent received the letter.
- 24. On or about December 8, 2005, Respondent mailed a letter to Silva with a courtesy copy to the DTC informing Silva that he was refunding the full amount Silva had paid and returning her file. The letter enclosed a check for $2,447 and Silva's documents.
 - 25. Silva received the refund and documents.

Conclusions of Law

By not filing the motion to re-open Silva's bankruptcy between December 2, 2004, and May 9, 2005, Respondent intentionally, recklessly, or repeatedly failed to perform legal services with competence, in violation of rule 3-110(A) of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

By failing to respond to the messages left by Silva in October 2004, December 2004, and between April 8, 2005 and May 9, 2005, Respondent failed to respond promptly to reasonable status inquiries of a client, in wilful violation of Business and Professions Code section 6068(m).

By failing to refund the unearned fees and costs to Silva from May 9, 2005 to December 8, 2005, Respondent failed to refund promptly any part of a fee paid in advance that has not been earned, in wilful violation of rule 3-700(D)(2) of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed Respondent that as of March 26, 2007, the estimated prosecution costs in this matter are approximately $2,929. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

OTHER FACTORS IN CONSIDERATION.

During the time that the misconduct herein was committed, Respondent was a sole practitioner with a large case load, including approximately 300 Fen phen cases and approximately 200 other cases including bankruptcy and general civil litigation matters. Respondent operated his office with the assistance of two full-time paralegals, a part-time paralegal and a part time law clerk. Respondent and his limited number of office staff were not adequately equipped to handle the large volume of cases.

As of the date that the State Bar entered into this stipulation with Respondent, Respondent is employed as a house counsel for a company in Temecula and maintains his office at the company. Respondent's employer permits him to represent other business clients in transactional work. Respondent maintains a case load of approximately 30 to 40 clients

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

Standards

Standard 2.4(b) of the Standards For Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct, Title IV of the Rules of Procedure ("Standards") provides that:

"Culpability of a member of wilfully failing to perform services in an individual matter or matters not demonstrating a pattern of misconduct or culpability of a member of wilfully failing to communicate with a client shall result in reproval or suspension depending upon the extent of the misconduct and the degree of harm to the client."

Case Law

Samuelson v. State Bar (1979) 23 Cal. 3d 558. Respondent publicly reproved for failing to expeditiously conduct probate proceedings (proceedings unnecessarily delayed for five years).

In the Matter of Hanson (Review Dept. 1994) 2 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 703. Respondent publicly reproved for failure to promptly return unearned fee, and upon discharge by the clients, failing to take steps to avoid foreseeable prejudice to the clients.

STATE BAR ETHICS SCHOOL.

Because Respondent has agreed to attend State Bar Ethics School as part of this stipulation, respondent may receive Minimum Continuing Legal Education credit upon the satisfactory completion of State Bar Ethics School.
