Attachment language begins here (if any):

FACTS:

1. Effective December 15, 1999, Respondent was enrolled as an inactive member of the State Bar of California at his request. On February 6, 2006, Respondent was enrolled as an active member of the State Bar of California at his request.
2. From December 15, 1999 through February 6, 2006, Respondent was ineligible to practice law in the State of California because he was enrolled as an inactive member of the State Bar of California.
3. At all times relevant to the events alleged herein, Respondent was not admitted to practice law in any other state.
4. At all times relevant to the events alleged herein, Respondent maintained an office in West Long Branch, New Jersey, wherein he operated under the name "A & A Consultants" ("Respondent's office"). Respondent's office offered immigration services as a document preparation service.
5. On July 10, 2004, Angela Araujo ("Araujo") and her husband Steven Bader ("Bader") employed Respondent in New Jersey to represent them in obtaining permanent residence status for Araujo.
6. On July 19, 2004, Respondent prepared, signed, and filed with the U.S. Citizen and Immigration Services of the United States Department of Homeland Security a "Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative" ("notice of entry of appearance") on behalf of Araujo and Bader. On the notice of entry of appearance, Respondent checked the box which indicated "I am an attorney and a member in good standing of the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States or of the highest court of the following State, territory, insular possession, or District of Columbia _____ and am not under a court or administrative agency order suspending, enjoining, restraining, disbaring, or otherwise restricting me in practicing law." On the first preceding blank line, Respondent typed "AILA#12102." AILA is an abbreviation for American Immigration Lawyers Association. On the second preceding blank line, Respondent typed "SUPR. CT. OF CALIFORNIA." Respondent also typed his name and signed his name on the notice of entry of appearance.
7. At the time Respondent signed and filed the notice of entry of appearance as an attorney, he misrepresented to the U.S. Citizen and Immigration Services of the United States Department of Homeland Security that he was a member in good standing and entitled to practice law in the State of California when he knew that he was enrolled as inactive member of the State Bar of California and not entitled to practice law.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

8. By misrepresenting to the U.S. Citizen and Immigration Services of the United States Department of Homeland Security that he was a member in good standing and entitled to practice law when he knew that he was enrolled as inactive member and not entitled to practice law, Respondent committed acts involving moral turpitude, dishonesty or corruption, in wilful violation of Business and Professions Code, section 6106.

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

Standard 1.3, Title IV, Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct, provides that the primary purposes of the disciplinary system are: "the protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession; the maintenance of high professional standards by attorneys and the preservation of public confidence in the legal profession."

Recently, the Supreme Court emphasized the importance of the standards and held that great weight should be given to the application of the standards in determining the appropriate level of discipline. The Court indicated that unless it has "grave doubts as to the propriety of the recommended discipline," it will uphold the application of the standards. In re Silvertown (2005) 36 Cal. 4th 81, 91-92.

Standard 2.3 provides that "[c]ulpability of a member of an act of moral turpitude, fraud, or intentional dishonesty toward a court, client or another person or of concealment of a material fact to the court, client or another person shall result in actual suspension or disbarment depending upon the extent to which the victim of the misconduct is harmed or misled and depending upon the magnitude of the act of misconduct and the degree to which it relates to the member's acts within the practice of law."

There is no compelling reason or anything in mitigation that would justify a deviation from the standards.

PENDING PROCEEDINGS.

The disclosure date referred to, on page one, paragraph A.(7), was May 6, 2008.
