STIPULATION RE FACTS, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND DISPOSITION

IN THE MATTER OF:

LOUIS GORDON BRUNO

CASE NUMBER(S):

05-O-04360

FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Louis G. Bruno ("Respondent") admits that the following facts are true and that he is culpable of violations of the specified statutes and/or Rules of Professional Conduct.

FACTS

- 1. Respondent was admitted to the practice of law in the State of California on December 7, 1988, was a member at all times pertinent to these charges, and is currently a member of the State Bar of California.
- 2. On or about February 4, 2003, Harmon E. Harris, Jr. ("Mr. Harris") employed Respondent to represent him in an action against Allstate Insurance Company ("Allstate"). Mr. Harris wanted to sue Allstate because Allstate had failed to reimburse Mr. Harris for the full amount of the property damage his vehicle sustained in an accident with another vehicle driven by a woman insured by Allstate.
- 3. On or about January 23, 2004, Respondent filed a complaint for breach of contract, negligence, and unfair business practices on behalf of Mr. Harris, entitled Harmon Edward Harris v. Allstate Insurance Company, in San Diego Superior Court, North County Branch, Case Number IN035161 (the "lawsuit").
- 4. On or about May 28, 2004, Allstate's attorneys, Luce, Forward, Hamilton & Scripps, LLP ("Luce Forward") filed a general denial and affirmative defenses in response to the complaint. The general denial and affirmative defenses were served on Respondent by mail and were not returned as undeliverable by the United States Postal Service. Respondent received the documents.
- 5. On or about July 16, 2004, Respondent appeared at a case-management conference in the lawsuit. An associate attorney with Luce Forward appeared on behalf of Allstate. At the case-management conference, the court set the trial in the lawsuit to take place on January 21, 2005 and set a trial-readiness conference for January 7, 2005. At the case-management conference, Allstate's attorney requested the earliest possible hearing date for a motion for judgment on the pleadings that Allstate would be filing. Allstate's attorney explained to the court and Respondent that there was no basis in law for Mr. Harris to sue Allstate because Allstate was not Mr. Harris's insurance company and that Mr. Harris's tort claims were barred as a matter of well-settled California law. This was what would form the basis of Allstate's motion for judgment on the pleadings. The court set the hearing on Allstate's motion for judgment on the pleadings for October 22, 2004. As Respondent was present at the case-management conference, he received proper notice of the trial date, the trial-readiness conference date, and the date for the hearing on Allstate's motion for judgment on the pleadings.

- 6. Respondent subsequently informed Mr. Harris about the January 2005 trial date. He did not inform Mr. Harris that Allstate planned to file a motion for judgment on the pleadings, nor did he ever tell Mr. Harris that there might be an issue as to whether Mr. Harris had standing to sue Allstate in light of the fact that Allstate was not Mr. Harris's insurance company. Respondent never gave Mr. Harris any legal advice on this issue.
- 7. On or about August 24, 2004, Allstate brought an ex parte motion to either advance the hearing on Allstate's motion for judgment on the pleadings or continue the trial date. Respondent was properly notified in advance of the ex parte hearing and appeared at the ex parte hearing on August 24, 2004. At the hearing, Respondent and counsel for Allstate stipulated to continue the trial and trial-readiness conference dates. As a result of the stipulation, the court continued the trial date to March 18, 2005 and continued the trial-readiness conference to February 18, 2005. The hearing on Allstate's motion for judgment on the pleadings remained scheduled for October 22, 2004. As Respondent was present at the August 24, 2004 hearing, Respondent received notice of the court's orders of August 24, 2004 continuing the trial date and the trial-readiness conference date.
- 8. Although he received notice of the new trial date, Respondent failed to notify Mr. Harris that the trial was continued from January 21, 2005 to March 18, 2005.
- 9. On or about September 29, 2004, Allstate's attorneys served Respondent by mail with Allstate's motion for judgment on the pleadings and documents in support thereof. The hearing on Allstate's motion was set for October 22, 2004, as it had been scheduled since the July 16, 2004 case-management conference. Respondent's service copies of Allstate's motion for judgment on the pleadings and documents in support thereof were properly mailed via the United States Postal Service, first class postage prepaid in a sealed envelope addressed to Respondent at his correct street address but the wrong suite number. Respondent's address was: 135 W. Mission Avenue, Suite 105, Escondido, CA 92025. However, Allstate's motion for judgment on the pleadings and supporting documents were mailed to Respondent at 135 W. Mission Avenue, Suite 135, Escondido, CA 92025. Nevertheless, Respondent's service copies of Allstate's motion for judgment on the pleadings and supporting documents were not returned as undeliverable or for any other reason by the United States Postal Service.

- 10. Respondent received notice of Allstate's motion for judgment on the pleadings and hearing date but failed to file and serve any opposition on behalf of Mr. Harris to Allstate's motion. Respondent also failed to notify Mr. Harris that Allstate filed a motion for judgment on the pleadings, that a hearing on the motion was set for October 22, 2004, and that Respondent failed to file and serve an opposition or any response to the motion.
- 11. At the October 22, 2004 hearing, the court granted the unopposed motion for judgment on the pleadings in favor of Allstate.
- 12. On or about October 25, 2004, Allstate's attorneys properly served Respondent by mail with a notice of ruling and a proposed judgment indicating that the court had granted Allstate's motion for judgment on the pleadings. Respondent received the notice of ruling and the proposed judgment.
- 13. On or about October 26, 2004, the court entered judgment in favor of Allstate and against Mr. Harris and ordered that Mr. Harris pay Allstate its reasonable costs of suit.
- 14. On or about October 29, 2004, Allstate's attorneys properly served Respondent with a memorandum of costs summary in which Allstate indicated it was seeking to recover costs in the amount of $335.60 from Mr. Harris. Respondent received Allstate's memorandum of costs summary.
- 15. On or about November 2, 2004, Allstate's attorneys properly served Respondent with a notice of entry of judgment with an attached copy of the judgment against Mr. Harris. Respondent received the notice of entry of judgment.
- 16. Respondent failed to notify Mr. Harris that Allstate's motion for judgment on the pleadings was granted, that judgment was entered in favor of Allstate and against Mr. Harris, and that Allstate was seeking recovery of costs against Mr. Harris.
- 17. Thereafter, Respondent failed to perform any additional services on behalf of Mr. Harris with respect to the lawsuit. At no time did Respondent seek to set aside the judgment in favor of Allstate.
- 18. In or about December 2004, Mr. Harris attempted on several occasions to contact Respondent telephonically to find out the status of the lawsuit and find out what he needed to do to prepare for the trial, which he had been told would take place in January 2005. By this time, Mr. Harris was living in Wyoming (which Respondent knew), and he needed to make arrangements to travel to California to attend the trial. Although Mr. Harris telephoned Respondent at the number Respondent had given him and left messages each time requesting Respondent to call him regarding the status of the lawsuit, Respondent failed to respond to any of Mr. Harris's calls.

- 19. The January 2005 trial date came and went, and still Mr. Harris received no contact from Respondent.
- 20. Mr. Harris contacted another California attorney to check on the status of his case and find out if a lawsuit had ever been filed on his behalf against Allstate. The attorney confirmed via the internet that the lawsuit had been filed and recommended that Mr. Harris contact the State Bar for further assistance.
- 21. Mr. Harris subsequently telephoned Respondent and left him a message indicating that if Respondent did not contact Mr. Harris about the status of his case, Mr. Harris would complain to the State Bar. This prompted Respondent to contact Mr. Harris. In or about March 2005, Respondent admitted to Mr. Harris that there was a judgment entered in favor of Allstate and against Mr. Harris.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

By failing to perform legal services for which he was hired, by failing to oppose the motion for judgment on the pleadings, by failing to advise Mr. Harris with respect to the standing issue raised by Allstate, and by failing to take any action to set aside the judgment in favor of Allstate, Respondent intentionally, recklessly or repeatedly failed to perform legal services with competence in willful violation of rule 3-110(A) of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

By failing to notify Mr. Harris that the trial date was continued, that Allstate had raised a standing issue, that Allstate was planning to file a motion for judgment on the pleadings based on the standing issue, that Allstate did file a motion for judgment on the pleadings, that a hearing on Allstate's motion was scheduled, that Respondent failed to oppose or respond in any way to Allstate's motion, that Allstate's motion was granted, that Allstate was seeking recovery of its costs, and by failing to notify Mr. Harris until in or about March 2005 that judgment was entered in favor of Allstate and against Mr. Harris, Respondent failed to keep a client reasonably informed of significant developments in a matter in which Respondent had agreed to provide legal service in willful violation of Business and Professions Code section 6068(m).

By failing to respond to Mr. Harris' telephonic status inquires on and after December 2004, Respondent failed to promptly respond to reasonable status inquiries of a client in a matter in which Respondent had agreed to provide legal services in willful violation of Business and Professions Code section 6068(m).

PENDING PROCEEDINGS

The disclosure date referred to on page two, paragraph A.(7), was April 6, 2007.

DISMISSALS

The parties respectfully request the Court to dismiss the following alleged violation in the interest of justice.

05-O-04360	Three	Business and Professions Code § 6068(i)

SUPPORTING AUTHORITY

Pursuant to Standard 1.3 of the Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct, the primary purposes of disciplinary proceedings and imposing sanctions for professional misconduct are "the protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession; the maintenance of high professional standards by attorneys and the preservation of public confidence in the legal profession."

Here, the requested discipline complies with Standard 1.3.

Standard 1.6(a) provides that the appropriate sanction for an act of professional misconduct shall be the sanction set forth in the standards for the particular misconduct found.

Pursuant to Standard 2.6, the culpability of a member of a violation of Business and Professions Code section 6068 (including section 6068(m)), "shall result in disbarment or suspension depending on the gravity of the offense or the harm, if any, to the victim, with due regard to the purposes of imposing discipline set forth in standard 1.3."

Finally, Standard 2.4(b) states, "Culpability of a member of wilfully failing to perform services in an individual matter or matters not demonstrating a pattern of misconduct or culpability of a member of wilfully failing to communicate with a client shall result in reproval or suspension depending upon the extent of the misconduct and the degree of harm to the client."

The Supreme Court gives the Standards "great weight," and will reject a recommendation consistent with the Standards only where the Court entertains "grave doubts" as to its propriety. In re Naney (1990) 51 Cal. 3d 186, 190; see also In re Silverton (2005) 36 Cal. 4th 81, 91, 92. Further, although the Standards are not mandatory, it is well established that the Standards may be deviated from only when there is a compelling, well-defined reason to do so. See Aronin v. State Bar (1990) 52 Cal. 3d 276, 291; see also Bates v. State Bar (1990) 52 Cal. 3d. 1056, 1060, fn. 2.

The State Bar recognizes that the Standards should not be applied in a talismanic fashion. Gary v. State Bar (1988) 44 Cal. 3d 820, 828. However, Respondent bears the burden to demonstrate that the State Bar should deviate from the Standards.

In the case at bar, the stipulated discipline of one (1) year stayed suspension and two (2) years probation with conditions is consistent with the Standards. Case law also supports the recommended level of discipline. The case most analogous to the matter before us is Butler v. State Bar (1986) 42 Cal. 3d 323. In Butler, the Supreme Court of California found that the respondent failed to adequately inquire and obtain information in a probate matter and failed to communicate with the decedent's son. The respondent in Butler had a prior private reproval stemming from his failure to take action on a probate matter. The Supreme Court imposed a two (2) year stayed suspension, with a two (2) year period of probation with conditions, including a sixty (60) day period of actual suspension.

Like the attorney in Butler, Respondent failed to perform competently and failed to communicate with his client. However, unlike the attorney in Butler, Respondent does not have a prior record of discipline in his nineteen (19) years as an attorney. Thus, the imposition of a one (1) year period of stayed suspension, with no actual period of suspension, is appropriate based on the particular facts of this case.

AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES

The current misconduct acknowledged by the member evidences multiple acts of wrongdoing.

MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES

Respondent has been an attorney for over nineteen (19) years with no prior record of discipline.

Respondent has been candid and cooperative with the trial attorney.

Respondent has expressed remorse and has acknowledged responsibility for his wrongdoing.

Although the dismissal of the client's complaint arguably involves harm, it is accepted for purposes of this Stipulation that the underlying matter was of such limited, if any, monetary value, to make harm, if any, minimal. Also, Respondent and the complainant have since reached an agreement regarding the underlying matter. Respondent understands, however, that the complainant may, or may not, have civil remedies available to him, which are not affected by this disciplinary disposition.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed Respondent that as of April 6, 2007, the estimated prosecution costs in this matter are approximately $2,296.00. Respondent acknowledges that this figure is an estimate only. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from this stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the costs of further proceedings.
