Other:

On March 11, 2010, Respondent Ruben D. Sanchez (Respondent) filed a request for an extension of time during which he may present proof of passage of the MPRE. The time for him to present such proof is currently scheduled to expire in April 2010. His motion also requested that the term of his probation be "extended" to November 30, 2011.

On March 18, 2010, the State Bar filed a statement of non-opposition to the request that the time for presenting proof of passage of the MPRE be extended. The State Bar noted, however, that Respondent's probation already extends beyond the November 30, 2011 date, so there is no need for it to be extended.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING and pursuant to rule 9.10(b) of the California Rules of Court, the court GRANTS Respondent's motion to extend the time during which he may present proof of passage of the MPRE. Accordingly, the time in which Respondent must present proof to the Office of Probation of his passage of the MPRE is extended until ten (10) calendar days after the results of the August, 2010 MPRE are released.

Respondent's request that his probation be "extended" is denied as unnecessary.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: March 30, 2010
