REVIEW DEPARTMENT OF THE STATE BAR COURT

IN BANK

IN THE MATTER OF DONALD ARDIS BROOKS,
A MEMBER OF THE STATE BAR OF CALIFORNIA

Since the State Bar Court has not yet received evidence that the misdemeanor conviction of respondent DONALD ARDIS BROOKS for violating Penal Code section 602.1, subdivision (a) is final, the Hearing Department of the State Bar Court shall, after a hearing, file a decision limited to whether the facts and circumstances surrounding the offense involve moral turpitude or other misconduct warranting discipline. The decision shall not include a recommendation regarding discipline absent a complete waiver of the lack of finality of the conviction. (See Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 607.)

If respondent timely objects to a hearing on these issues before the conviction is final, the Hearing Department shall, after a hearing, file its findings, based only on the record of conviction, as to whether there is probable cause to believe that the facts and circumstances surrounding the offense involve moral turpitude. If the Hearing Department finds probable cause, the Review Department will consider placing respondent on interim suspension. (See In Re Strick (1983) 34 Cal.3d 891.)
