On November 23, 2011, Respondent filed a request for an extension of time during which she may present proof of passage of the MPRE. On November 30, 2011, the State Bar filed a statement of non-opposition to the request that the time for presenting proof of passage of the MPRE be extended until the results of the November 2011 exam are posted, but requested that an additional motion be filed in the event that Respondent learns that she failed the November examination.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING and pursuant to rule 9.10(b) of the California Rules of Court, the court GRANTS Respondent's motion to extend the time during which she may present proof of passage of the MPRE. Accordingly, the time in which Respondent must present proof to the Office of Probation of her passage of the MPRE is extended until ten (10) calendar days after the results of the March, 2012 MPRE are released.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
