ORDERS:

Respondent's Motion to Vacate and/or Reduce Costs

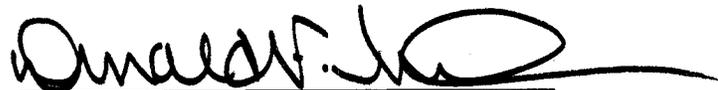

On March 3, 2011, Respondent filed a motion for relief from this court's order assessing costs. On March 17, 2011, the State Bar filed its response to the motion. In its response, the State Bar objected to this court relieving Respondent completely from the obligation to pay costs, but it indicated no objection to an extension of time being granted for Respondent to pay those costs.

No Good Cause having been shown, Respondent's request to be relieved completely of the obligation to pay costs is DENIED.

GOOD CAUSE, however, has been shown for extending the obligation to pay such costs. Accordingly, such costs will now be paid in equal installments over the three billing cycles following the effective date of this order. More specifically, one-third of the disciplinary costs are to be paid prior to February 1, 2012; one-third of the costs are to be paid prior to February 1, 2014; and one-third of the costs are to be paid prior to February 1, 2014. If Respondent fails to pay any of the above installment payment more than 10 days after its due date without the prior written approval of the State Bar, the remaining unpaid balance of the costs is due immediately and is enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: March 21, 2011
