In the Matter of: EDWIN TOLMAS Member No.: 35726 A Member of the State Bar	Case No(s): 06-O-13474 (S183873) MINUTE ORDER

On December 21, 2010, Respondent filed a motion for relief from the Supreme Court's order assessing costs. On January 5, 2011, the State Bar filed its response to the motion. In this response, the State Bar objected to Respondent's failure to provide a detailed financial statement, but indicated no objection to an extension of time being granted for Respondent to pay those costs.

Good cause has been shown for delaying the obligation to pay the extensive costs ordered by the Supreme Court, especially given the short time between the issuance of the Supreme Court's order and the fact that Respondent was also ordered to be ineligible to practice during much of the time between the court's order and the due date for paying the costs.

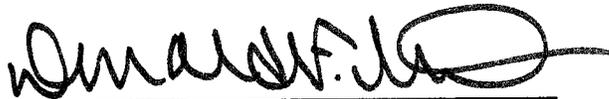

Rather than place Respondent on a monthly payment schedule, the success of which would be dependent on the stability of the cash flow of Respondent's renewed practice, this court orders that the unpaid costs will now be paid in equal installments over the three billing cycles for 2012, 2013, and 2014.

Respondent must submit his payments directly to the State Bar's Membership Billing Office in San Francisco and he must promptly submit proof of each such payment to the State Bar's Office of Probation in Los Angeles. If Respondent fails to pay any installment payment during or before the 10-day period following its due date without the prior written approval of the State Bar's Office of Probation, the remaining unpaid balance of the entire costs is due immediately and is enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.

The requests for an emergency hearing of this matter or that this court modify the order of suspension are DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: January 10, 2011

 DONALD F. MILES
 Judge of the State Bar Court
