Case No. 07-O-10100
ORDER

On December 27, 2011, respondent filed a motion and a supplement to his motion to extend the deadline for passing the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination. On January 5, 2012, the State Bar filed its opposition to respondent's motion.

Good cause shown, respondent's motion is granted. He has until one week after the release of the results of the March 2012 examination to provide proof of passage to the Office of Probation of the State Bar. No further extensions are contemplated.
