A Member of the State Bar.	)

On June 24, 2011, respondent, by and through his attorney William Balin, filed a motion for extension of time to pay disciplinary costs. The State Bar has not filed a response to the motion. However, due to the proximity of respondent's automatic suspension if he does not pay disciplinary costs, the court concludes it should issue its order at this time.

GOOD CAUSE HAVING BEEN SHOWN, the court grants the motion for an extension of time to pay the costs.

Accordingly, the court ORDERS that the outstanding balance of disciplinary costs in this matter is to be paid in four equal annual installments over the next four years with respondent's annual State Bar membership fees for the years 2012, 2013, 2014, and 2015.

The court further Orders that if respondent fails to pay any installment of disciplinary costs within the time provided herein or as may be modified by the State Bar Court under Business and Professions Code section 6086.10, subdivision (c), and Rules of Procedure of the State Bar, rule 5.130 or 5.132, the remaining balance of the costs is due and payable immediately. (Rule Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.134.) The payment of costs remains enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.
