Attachment to Stipulation Re Facts and Conclusions of Law

IN THE MATTER OF: James A. Fonda

CASE NUMBER(S): 07-O-12016

FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

Respondent admits that the following facts are true and that he is culpable of violations of the specified statutes and/or Rules of Professional Conduct:

Statement of Facts

On or about April 25, 2003, Traci Valdez employed respondent to represent her in a dissolution matter. On or about May 3, 2003, respondent filed a petition for dissolution and supporting documentation in Stanislaus County Superior Court. On or about June 2, 2003, respondent appeared at hearing regarding Valdez's dissolution matter. Thereafter, at Valdez's request, respondent ceased performing services for Valdez.

In or about July 2006, Valdez informed respondent that she desired to complete her divorce. On or about July 18, 2006, respondent and Valdez met to finalize the paperwork necessary to complete the dissolution matter. In or about July 2006, respondent informed Valdez that her divorce would be complete in approximately four to eight weeks because Valdez's estranged husband was in default.

Between in or about July 2006 and in or about September 2006, Valdez telephoned respondent and left messages for respondent requesting that he provide her with a status update on her matter. Valdez also sent respondent a letter requesting that he provide her with a status update. Although respondent received the messages and the letter, he failed to respond to them and failed to provide Valdez with a status update on her matter.

Thereafter, respondent failed to complete and file the documentation necessary to finalize the dissolution and failed to move for entry of default against Valdez's estranged husband. In or about December 2006, Valdez terminated respondent and employed another attorney to complete her dissolution matter.

Conclusion of Law

By failing to complete Valdez's divorce soon after July 2006, respondent failed to perform with competence, in willful violation of Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 3-110(A).

By failing to respond to Valdez's messages and letter requesting a status update, respondent failed to respond to reasonable status inquiries of a client in a matter in which respondent had agreed to provide legal services, in willful violation of Business and Profession Code section 6068(m).
