G. SUPPORTING AUTHORITY:

Standard 1.7(a), Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct provides that if a member is found culpable of professional conduct in any proceeding in which discipline may be imposed and the member has a record of one prior imposition of discipline, the degree of discipline imposed in the current proceeding shall be greater than that imposed in the prior proceeding unless the prior discipline imposed was so remote in time to the current proceeding and the offense for which it was imposed was so minimal in severity that imposing greater discipline in the current proceeding would be manifestly unjust.

Standard 2.6(a) provides that a violation of Business and Professions Code section 6068(k) shall result in disbarment or suspension depending upon the gravity of the offense or the harm, if any, to the victim, with due regard to the purposes of imposing discipline set forth in standard 1.3.

Given the mitigating and aggravating factors present, the parties agree that a 90-day actual suspension is appropriate.

H. MISCELLANEOUS:

Respondent's failure to comply with the probation conditions resulted, in part, from a medical condition from which she has recovered. Based upon competent evidence, Respondent has shown sufficient progress or rehabilitation from the circumstances which led to the imposition of additional probation conditions connected to the Lawyer's Assistance Program of the State Bar of California. As such, the parties agree that no further probation conditions are warranted, other than those recommended in this stipulation.

Attachment language begins here (if any):

Respondent admits that the following facts are true and that she is culpable of the following violations:

FACTS:

1. On February 6, 2004, the State Bar Court Hearing Department issued a decision in State Bar Court case numbers 00-O-14093 and 02-O-13824 regarding Respondent. The Order was effective August 7, 2004. On or about July 8, 2004, the California Supreme Court clerk served a copy of the order on Respondent by mail. Respondent received a copy of the Order.

3. Pursuant to the Order, Respondent was ordered to comply with the following terms and conditions of probation, among others:

a. to comply with the State Bar Act and the Rules of Professional Conduct during the probation period;

b. to report within ten days to the Membership Records Office of the State Bar of California and to the Office of Probation of the State Bar of California ("Probation"), all changes of information, including current office address and telephone number, or other address for State Bar purposes, as prescribed by section 6002.1 of the Business and Professions Code; and,

c. to submit written quarterly reports to the Probation on each January 10, April 10, July 10 and October 10 of the period of probation, certifying under penalty of perjury whether she had complied with the State Bar Act, the Rules of Professional Conduct, and all conditions of probation during the preceding calendar quarter, and to file a final report containing the same information no earlier than twenty days prior to the expiration of the probation period and no later than the last day of probation.

4. Respondent did not file her first quarterly report with Probation, covering the period of August 7 to September 30, 2004, by the due date of October 10, 2004 (the "first quarterly report").
5. On November 24, 2004, Probation mailed a letter to Respondent with information regarding her probation conditions, including a blank quarterly report form that she could use to report her compliance to Probation. In the letter, Probation informed Respondent that the first quarterly report was due on October 10, 2004. Respondent received the letter.
