G. SUPPORTING AUTHORITY:

Standard 2.2(b) provides that culpability of commingling of entrusted funds or property with personal property or the commission of another violation of rule 4-100, Rules of Professional Conduct, none of which offenses result in the wilful misappropriation of entrusted funds or property shall result in at least a three month actual suspension from the practice of law, irrespective of mitigating circumstances. However, the standards, while entitled to great weight, do not mandate a specific discipline. The court is "not bound to follow the standards in talismanic fashion. . .," but the Supreme Court is ". . .permitted to temper the letter of the law with considerations peculiar to the offense and the offender." [Citations.] ". . .[A]lthough the standards were established as guidelines, ultimately, the proper recommendation of discipline rest[s] on a balanced consideration of the unique factors in each case. [Citations.]" (In the Matter of VanSickle (Review Dept. 2006) 4 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 980, 994.)

Balancing all factors present, including the lack of any aggravating factors, the presence of mitigating factors and the limited duration of the misconduct, deviation from a three month actual suspension is warranted under the circumstances.
