Respondent filed a motion on February 18, 2011, seeking a modification of the terms of his probation to extend the time within which he may take and pass the MPRE to August 2011. On March 10, 2011, the Office of Probation filed a response, indicating no objection to an extension to the March 5, 2011 administration, but objecting to anything beyond that date, without a further motion.

The court GRANTS the motion and extends the time within which to provide proof that respondent has passed the MPRE to August 31, 2011 (three weeks after the next administration on August 5, 2011.)
