F. Other Conditions Negotiated by the Parties:

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

Standard 3.4 states that when a member has been convicted of a crime not involving moral turpitude, the sanction shall be according to those prescribed under Part B of the standards appropriate to the nature and extent of the misconduct.

Under Part B, the appropriate standard is 2.6 – the standard applicable to violations of Business and Professions Code section 6068(a), failure to obey the law. Standard 2.6 states that the level of discipline shall be disbarment or suspension.

In the Matter of Stewart (Review Department 1994) 3 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 52, Respondent was convicted of battery of a police officer. In the facts and circumstances surrounding the case, Respondent was scheduled to visit his infant son (he was separated from his wife) and had been drinking. His wife refused to allow him to visit his son. The police were called. The police told Respondent he had to leave. He refused to leave without his son. The officer reached for Respondent's arm to escort him from the wife's apartment, respondent jerked away. The officer again tried to reach for respondent's arm, respondent gave him a bear hug and the two struggled until respondent was handcuffed by the officers. Respondent was arrested and convicted by a jury verdict of misdemeanor battery on a police officer. In the disciplinary proceeding, Respondent testified that the officers beat him at the scene and at the hospital. The Hearing officer did not find respondent credible. In mitigation, the hearing judge considered respondent had no prior discipline for 17 years after admission until he engaged in the prior record of misconduct (Review Dept did not consider that mitigating). In aggravation, the court found respondent's misconduct involved multiple acts of wrongdoing: trespass of his wife's apartment, resistance twice of the officer's efforts to get him to leave the apartment, respondent's false description of the incident and his lack of candor, and his prior record of discipline (which was 90 days actual suspension) Respondent had one prior record of discipline. The court recommended that Respondent be suspended for two years, that that suspension be stayed and that respondent be placed on probation for two years on conditions including sixty days actual suspension. The court did not find moral turpitude but other misconduct warranting discipline. The present matter is less egregious than Stewart as Respondent was not drinking and was not convicted of battery of the police officer. Also, in the instant matter, Respondent has no prior record of discipline and there were no additional acts of wrongdoing.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed respondent that as of April 14, 2011, the prosecution costs in this matter are $1,636. Respondent further acknowledges that this is an estimate of costs and should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.
