ATTACHMENT TO STIPULATION RE FACTS, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND DISPOSITION

IN THE MATTER OF: THOMAS J. HASTERT, SBN 143101

CASE NUMBER(S): 08-H-11061

FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

Facts:

1. On or about December 1, 2006, respondent signed a stipulation in which he admitted professional misconduct, agreed to receive a public reproof, and agreed to comply with conditions attached to the reproof for a period of one year. The conditions attached to the reproof were specified in the stipulation that respondent signed.

2. On or about December 11, 2006, acting under the authority of Business and Professions Code section 6077, the State Bar Court of California issued an order imposing a public reproof upon respondent in case number 04-O-10070. Pursuant to California Rule of Court 9.19, the State Bar Court order required respondent to comply with the stipulated conditions attached to the reproof. The Court found that the stipulation "...protects the public and that the interests of Respondent will be served by any conditions attached to the reproof..."

3. The December 11, 2006, State Bar Court order and reproof conditions became final on or about December 31, 2006, and at all times thereafter have remained in full force and effect. Soon after December 11, 2006, respondent received notice of the State Bar Court order and reproof conditions.

4. On or about December 27, 2006, the Office of Probation mailed respondent a reminder letter setting forth the conditions of the reproof. Respondent received this letter shortly thereafter.

5. Duty to Contact/Meet with the Office of Probation.

(a) One of the conditions of the reproof required respondent to contact and meet with the Office of Probation, as follows:

"Within thirty (30) days from the effective date of discipline, Respondent must contact the Office of Probation and schedule a meeting with Respondent's assigned probation deputy to discuss these terms and conditions of probation. Upon the direction of the Office of Probation, Respondent must meet with the probation deputy either in-person or by telephone. During the period of probation, Respondent must meet with the probation deputy as directed and upon request."

(b) Respondent violated this condition because, during the thirty day period beginning on or about December 31, 2006, he both failed to contact the Office of Probation to schedule the meeting and failed to participate in such a meeting. To date, respondent has failed to comply with this condition.

6. Reporting Condition.

(a) One of the conditions of the reprobation required respondent to submit quarterly reports as follows:

"Respondent must submit written quarterly reports to the Office of Probation on each January 10, April 10, July 10, and October 10 of the condition period attached to the reprobation. Under penalty of perjury, Respondent must state whether Respondent has complied with the State Bar Act, the Rules of Professional Conduct, and all conditions of the reprobation during the preceding calendar quarter. Respondent must also state in each report whether there are any proceedings pending against him or her in the State Bar Court and, if so, the case number and current status of that proceeding. If the first report would cover less than thirty (30) days, that report must be submitted on the next following quarter date and cover the extended period.

"In addition to all quarterly reports, a final report, containing the same information, is due no earlier than twenty (20) days before the last day of the condition period and no later than the last day of the condition period."

(b) Respondent was therefore required to submit reports on or before April 10, 2007, July 10, 2007, October 10, 2007, and January 3, 2008. Respondent violated this condition by failing to submit any of the required quarterly reports prior to their respective due dates. Respondent failed to submit any of the required reports until on or about March 21, 2008.

7. ETHICS SCHOOL.

(a) One of the conditions of probation provided as follows:

"Within one (1) year of the effective date of discipline herein, Respondent must provide to the Office of Probation satisfactory proof of attendance at a session of the Ethics School and passage of the test given at the end of that session."

(b) Respondent wilfully violated this probation condition because he failed timely to attend Ethics School, failed timely to pass the test given at the end of an Ethics School session, and failed timely to provide proof of attendance to the Office of Probation. Respondent took no action to comply with this requirement until on or about March 21, 2008, when he enrolled for the next scheduled Ethics School.

Conclusions of Law:

By failing to comply with the above conditions, respondent failed to comply with conditions attached to a public reproof administered by the State Bar pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 6077 and 6078 and former rule 956 (now 9.19), California Rules of Court, in violation of rule 1-110(A) of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

PENDING PROCEEDINGS.

The disclosure date referred to, on page one, paragraph A.(7), was October 1, 2008.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed respondent that as of October 1, 2008, the costs in this matter are $3,654.00. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

Standard 2.9 provides that culpability of a member of a wilful violation of rule 1-110, Rules of Professional Conduct, shall result in suspension.

STATE BAR ETHICS SCHOOL EXCLUSION.

It is not recommended that respondent attend State Bar Ethics School since respondent attended Ethics School within the last two years on August 21, 2008, in connection with case number 04-O-10070.

Respondent admits that the above facts are true and that he is culpable of violations of the Rules of Professional Conduct.
