A Member of the State Bar.	)

On November 1, 2010, the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel filed an unopposed Motion to Correct an Errata in Stipulation concerning a stipulation filed in this court on June 2, 2010. The purpose of the motion was to delete a requirement which the parties erroneously included, to wit, the requirement of a probation monitor for respondent. The court considers the present motion to be a motion to modify the terms of probation and, finding good cause, GRANTS the motion.

The requirement of a probation monitor for respondent is deleted from the conditions of probation in the stipulation filed June 2, 2010 in this matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
