On February 10, 2010, respondent Earl Wayne Husted filed a brief seeking relief from or extension of time to pay disciplinary costs associated with California Supreme Court Case No. S175102 (“Motion for Relief”). Respondent’s motion was based on financial hardship as he is currently five months behind in his home mortgage payments and facing foreclosure.

On March 2, 2010, Deputy Trial Counsel Ashod Mooradian of the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California (“State Bar”) filed its opposition.

After consideration of the parties’ moving papers, the court issues the following orders:

1. Respondent’s motion for relief from payment of disciplinary costs is DENIED, no good cause having been shown; and
2. Respondent’s motion for extension of time to comply with the order to pay disciplinary costs is GRANTED. The court orders that respondent’s time to pay the disciplinary costs associated with Supreme Court Case No. S175102 be extended and that one-half of said costs is to be paid with respondent’s annual State Bar membership fees for the years 2011 and 2012.<sup>1</sup> The court further ORDERS that, if respondent fails to pay any installment of disciplinary costs within the time provided herein or as may be modified by the State Bar Court pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 6086.10, subdivision (c), the remaining balance of the costs is due and payable immediately unless relief has been granted under the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 286). The payment of costs remains enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: March 9, 2010.

<sup>1</sup> The State Bar requests that respondent remain ineligible to practice law until his costs are paid in full regardless of whether he is granted an extension of time to pay. This request and the State Bar's request that respondent make monthly or quarterly payments are DENIED, no good cause having been shown.
