AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

In State Bar disciplinary proceedings involving criminal convictions, the conviction is considered conclusive evidence of guilt and the Respondent may not collaterally attack it. In re Utz (1989) 48 Cal.3rd 468, 480.

Moral turpitude has been defined as an “act of baseness, vileness or depravity in the private and social duties which a man owes to his fellow men, or to society in general, contrary to the accepted and customary rule of right and duty between man and man [citation]. The concept of moral turpitude depends upon the state of public morals, and may vary according to the community or the times, [citations] as well as on the degree of public harm produced by the act in question.” In Re Fahey (1973) 3 Cal. 3rd 842, 849.

Standard 3.4 provides that “Final conviction of a member of a crime which does not involve moral turpitude inherently or in the facts and circumstances surrounding the crime’s commission but which does involve other misconduct warranting discipline shall result in a sanction as prescribed under part B of these standards appropriate to the nature and extent of the misconduct found to have been committed by the member.”

In consideration of the facts and circumstances surrounding Respondent’s misconduct, and the aggravating and mitigating circumstances present, the parties submit that the intent and goals of the Standards are met in this matter with the imposition of a one month actual suspension, one year stayed suspension and two year probation.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed respondent that as of February 10, 2012, the prosecution costs in this matter are approximately $4,906.00. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.
