On February 9, 2018, the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California (State Bar), by Shakata Shores-Brooks, Esq., filed a response in opposition to Respondent's motion for relief from costs. By order filed February 16, 2018, this Court denied Respondent's motion for a relief from payment of State Bar costs but granted Respondent an extension of time to pay the costs imposed on him in the above-captioned matter. (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 6086.10, subd. (c); Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.130(B).) In sum, the Court ordered that Respondent pay one-fifth of the costs with his State Bar of California membership fees for each of the years 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023.

On January 28, 2019, Respondent filed a motion for relief from costs due to financial hardship however, Respondent did not submit documentation in support of his financial declaration in support of his motion for relief from or extension of time to pay disciplinary costs. The State Bar filed a response in opposition on February 22, 2019.

Accordingly, the court orders that Respondent's motion for relief from costs is DENIED. However, the court grants Respondent an extension of time to pay the costs imposed on him in the above-captioned matter. (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 6086.10, subd. (c); Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.130(B).)

If he fails to pay any installment as described above, or as may be hereafter modified by the State Bar Court, the remaining unpaid balance of the costs is due and payable immediately. Until they are paid in full, the costs remain enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment. All other terms and conditions remain the same.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
