ii. ☐ and until Respondent pays restitution as set forth in the Financial Conditions form attached to this stipulation.

iii. ☐ and until Respondent does the following:

E. Additional Conditions of Probation:

(1) ☒ If Respondent is actually suspended for two years or more, he/she must remain actually suspended until he/she proves to the State Bar Court his/her rehabilitation, fitness to practice, and learning and ability in general law, pursuant to standard 1.4(c)(ii), Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct.

- (2) ☒ During the probation period, Respondent must comply with the provisions of the State Bar Act and Rules of Professional Conduct.
- (3) ☒ Within ten (10) days of any change, Respondent must report to the Membership Records Office of the State Bar and to the Office of Probation of the State Bar of California ("Office of Probation"), all changes of information, including current office address and telephone number, or other address for State Bar purposes, as prescribed by section 6002.1 of the Business and Professions Code.
- (4) ☒ Within thirty (30) days from the effective date of discipline, Respondent must contact the Office of Probation and schedule a meeting with Respondent's assigned probation deputy to discuss these terms and conditions of probation. Upon the direction of the Office of Probation, Respondent must meet with the probation deputy either in-person or by telephone. During the period of probation, Respondent must promptly meet with the probation deputy as directed and upon request.
- (5) ☒ Respondent must submit written quarterly reports to the Office of Probation on each January 10, April 10, July 10, and October 10 of the period of probation. Under penalty of perjury, Respondent must state whether Respondent has complied with the State Bar Act, the Rules of Professional Conduct, and all conditions of probation during the preceding calendar quarter. Respondent must also state whether there are any proceedings pending against him or her in the State Bar Court and if so, the case number and current status of that proceeding. If the first report would cover less than 30 days, that report must be submitted on the next quarter date, and cover the extended period.

In addition to all quarterly reports, a final report, containing the same information, is due no earlier than twenty (20) days before the last day of the period of probation and no later than the last day of probation.

- (6) ☐ Respondent must be assigned a probation monitor. Respondent must promptly review the terms and conditions of probation with the probation monitor to establish a manner and schedule of compliance. During the period of probation, Respondent must furnish to the monitor such reports as may be requested, in addition to the quarterly reports required to be submitted to the Office of Probation. Respondent must cooperate fully with the probation monitor.
- (7) ☒ Subject to assertion of applicable privileges, Respondent must answer fully, promptly and truthfully any inquiries of the Office of Probation and any probation monitor assigned under these conditions which are directed to Respondent personally or in writing relating to whether Respondent is complying or has complied with the probation conditions.

ATTACHMENT TO STIPULATION RE FACTS, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND DISPOSITION

IN THE MATTER OF:

Quentin B. Simms

CASE NUMBER(S): ET AL.

09-O-10198, 09-O-12250, and 09-O-17751 (investigation file)

FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

Respondent admits that the following facts are true and that he is culpable of violations of the specified statutes and/or Rules of Professional Conduct.

Case Numbers: 09-O-10198, 09-O-12250, 09-O-17751(investigation)

1. Respondent maintained a client trust account at Bank of America, account number 1664340204 (the "CTA").
2. Between August 1, 2008 and April 30, 2009, Respondent deposited personal funds into the CTA, maintained earned fees in the CTA, and paid personal expenses from the CTA.
3. Between August 6, 2008 and March 20, 2009, seventeen checks from the CTA were returned unpaid due to insufficient funds in the CTA.

Conclusions of Law

4. By depositing personal funds into the CTA, maintaining earned fees in the CTA, and paying personal expenses from the CTA between August 1, 2008 and April 30, 2009, Respondent misused his CTA and commingled funds in the CTA in violation of rule 4-100(A), of the California Rules of Professional Conduct.
5. By issuing checks against insufficient funds from the CTA, Respondent wilfully or with gross negligence committed acts involving moral turpitude in violation of Business and Professions Code section 6106.

PENDING PROCEEDINGS.

The disclosure date referred to, on page 2, paragraph A(6), was February 17, 2010.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed respondent that as of February 26, 2010, the prosecution costs in this matter are $5,746.20. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

Standard 1.3 of the Standards For Attorney Sanctions For Professional Misconduct provides that the primary purpose of discipline is the protection of the public, the courts and legal profession; maintenance of high professional standards; and the preservation of public confidence

Standard 2.2(b) culpability of a member of commingling of entrusted funds or property with personal property or the commission of another violation of rule 4-100, Rules of Professional Conduct, none of which offenses result in the wilful misappropriation of entrusted funds or property shall result in at least a three month actual suspension from the practice of law, irrespective of mitigating circumstances.

Standard 2.3 culpability of a member of an act of moral turpitude, fraud, or intentional dishonesty toward a court, client or another person or of concealment of a material fact to a court, client or another person shall result in actual suspension or disbarment depending upon the extent to which the victim of the misconduct is harmed or misled and depending upon the magnitude of the act of misconduct and the degree to which it related to the member's acts within the practice of law.

In the case of In re Ronald Silvertown, (2005) 36 Cal.4th 81, the Supreme Court discussed the fact that the Standards for Attorney Sanction For Professional Misconduct are entitled to great weight and the State Bar Court should follow their guidance whenever possible. (Silvertown 36 Cal.4th at 92)

Standard 1.7(b) provides that if a member is found culpable of professional misconduct in any proceeding in which discipline may be imposed and the member has a record of two prior impositions of discipline as defined by Standard 1.2(f), the degree of discipline in the current proceeding shall be disbarment unless the most compelling mitigating circumstances clearly predominate.

However, the Court in Silvertown also indicated that the State Bar Court may deviate from the Standards where there exists grave doubts as to the propriety of applying them in a particular case. (Silvertown 36 Cal.4th at 92). For example, deviation from the Standard may be appropriate where extraordinary circumstances exist or where the imposition of discipline called for by the Standard would be manifestly unjust. The court opined in In the Matter of Miller (Review Dept. 1990) 1 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 131, 136 that "merely declaring that an attorney has three impositions of discipline, without more analysis, may not adequately justify disbarment in every case."

In the Matter of Sklar (Review Dept. 1993) 2 Cal. State Bar Court Rptr. 602, provides that prior discipline is always a factor in aggravation. However, the court found that the aggravating force of prior discipline is diminished if the misconduct occurred during the same period as the misconduct in the prior matter. In this circumstance, it is appropriate to consider what the discipline would have been if all the charged misconduct during the time period had been brought as one case. In the instant case, Respondent's misconduct charged in the first record of discipline ended in 1994, one year prior to the filing of charges in the second prior record of discipline. Moreover, the additional violations from the second prior would not have increased the level of discipline given in the first record of discipline. Respondent received six months actual suspension in the first record of discipline and thirty days actual suspension in the second record of discipline.

Following Standard 1.7(b) would result in an excessive sanction in the present case. Although the current misconduct is serious, there is no pattern of misconduct of increasing severity or a repetition of offenses for which Respondent was previously disciplined.

The parties further submit that the intent and goals of Standard 1.3 are met in this matter by the imposition of two years actual suspension with probationary conditions, including that Respondent attend the State Bar's Client Trust Account School.

MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

FACTS SUPPORTING MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

Respondent's misconduct did not cause harm to a client.

Respondent has been candid and has cooperated to the extent that he stipulated to facts, conclusions of law and level of discipline.

STATE BAR ETHICS SCHOOL.

Because Respondent has agreed to attend State Bar Ethics School as part of this stipulation, Respondent may receive Minimum Continuing Legal Education credit upon the satisfactory completion of State Bar Ethics School.
