_____	)

On August 30, 2013, respondent Robin C. Carr filed a motion to vacate or stay order of suspension based on her failure to take and pass the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE). On September 5, 2013, the State Bar filed its response.

Finding good cause, the motion is granted, in part. Respondent has until December 17, 2013, to provide proof of passage of the MPRE to the Office of Probation. The August 26, 2013 suspension order is vacated. All other requests as to the MPRE are denied. Any other requested relief as to respondent's State Bar Ethics School requirement must first be heard by the hearing department.
