A Former Member of the State Bar. )

On August 8, 2016, petitioner Stephen Kenneth Chrysler sought relief from the order assessing disciplinary costs in State Bar Court case No. 10-C-05936 (motion for relief). Petitioner's motion was based on financial hardship. Petitioner owes costs in the amount of $2,543.50. On August 23, 2016, the Office of Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California filed an opposition to the motion for relief.

After thorough consideration, the court issues the following orders:

1. Petitioner's motion for full relief from payment of disciplinary costs is DENIED, no good cause having been shown; and
2. On its own motion, the court GRANTS an extension of time for Petitioner to comply with the order to pay disciplinary costs, good cause having been shown. Accordingly, the time to pay costs is extended, with costs to be paid in equal amounts on or before September 1, 2017; September 1, 2018; September 1, 2019; September 1, 2020; and September 1, 2021. The court further ORDERS that, if Petitioner fails to pay any installment of disciplinary costs within the time provided herein or as may be modified by the State Bar Court pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 6086.10, subdivision (c), the remaining balance of the costs is due and payable immediately unless relief has been granted under the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.134). The payment of costs remains enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
