FACTS

Respondent admits that the following facts are true:

On July 6, 2009, Fairfax County police officers visited respondent at his home in Fairfax County Virginia. They confronted him with information that a subpoena of respondent's former internet service provider had yielded information that respondent had uploaded a child pornography video in 2007. With respondent's consent, the officers examined respondent's computer and found numerous images of child pornography. These images had been deleted but were retrieved through a forensic review of the hard drive of the computer. These included images of children who were from 8 to 12 years old engaging in sexual acts. Respondent had knowingly and intentionally downloaded these images.

On July 26, 2010, respondent pleaded guilty to two felony counts of violating Virginia Code section 18.2-374.1:1 (knowing possession of child pornography), and the conviction is now final.
