NOTICE OF ENTRY OF DEFAULT:

TO ALL PARTIES AND COUNSEL IN THE ABOVE ENTITLED MATTER:

Upon motion by the State Bar and no written response having been filed within 10 days after service of said motion, Respondent is hereby notified that:

“Your default has been entered because of your failure to timely file a response to the notice of disciplinary charges filed in this proceeding. You may not participate further in these proceedings unless and until your default is set aside on motion timely made under the prescribed grounds. See rules 200 et seq., Rules of Procedure for State Bar Court Proceedings.”

“In light of the entry of your default, if the discipline imposed by the Supreme Court in this proceeding includes a period of actual suspension, you will remain suspended from the practice of law for at least the period of time specified by the Supreme Court. In addition, the actual suspension will continue until you have requested, and the State Bar Court has granted, a motion for termination of the actual suspension. As a condition for terminating the actual suspension, the State Bar Court may place you on probation and require you to comply with such conditions of probation as the State Bar Court deems appropriate. See rules 205, Rules of Procedure for State Bar Court Proceedings.”

“Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 6007(e), upon entry of the respondent’s default, the Court shall order the involuntary inactive enrollment of a respondent in a disciplinary proceeding if the Court determines that the conditions in section 6007(e)(1) have been met. See rules 500 et seq., Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California.”

The parties are hereby notified that all previously scheduled court dates are vacated. No further notices or pleadings will be served upon Respondent except for a copy of the decision of the State Bar Court and any request for review filed by the State Bar.

The entry of default is effective upon the filing of this notice.
