DATE OF DISCLOSURE

The notice referenced in paragraph A7 of this stipulation was sent to respondent on October 19, 2010.

SUPPORTING AUTHORITY

Attorneys who commit probation violations usually receive substantial periods of actual suspension (e.g., In the Matter of Laden (Review Dept. 2004) 4 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 678).

STATEMENT OF FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Respondent willfully violated Business and Professions Code, section 6068(k), by failing to comply with all conditions attached to any disciplinary probation, as follows:
2. On or about February 21, 2008, the California Supreme Court filed a disciplinary order in State Bar Court case number 06-O-14507 et seq. (Supreme Court case number S159075).
3. The disciplinary order inter alia placed respondent on probation for two years and required her to comply with conditions specified in the stipulation that respondent had signed on or about October 12, 2007 and that had been approved by the State Bar Court on October 23, 2007.
4. The disciplinary order and the probation conditions became effective thirty days after the order was filed (California Rules of Court, rule 9.18(b)), i.e., on March 23, 2008, and at all times subsequent have remained in full force and effect.
5. Notice of the disciplinary order was properly served upon respondent in the manner prescribed by California Rule of Court 9.18(b) at the address respondent then maintained with the State Bar in accordance with Business and Professions Code section 6002.1, subdivision (a). At all times pertinent hereto, respondent was on actual notice of the Supreme Court's order and probation conditions.

6. MEETING WITH PROBATION DEPUTY.

- (a) One of the conditions of probation provided as follows:

"Within thirty (30) days from the effective date of discipline, Respondent must contact the Office of Probation and schedule a meeting with Respondent's assigned probation deputy to discuss these terms and conditions of probation. Upon the direction of the Office of Probation, Respondent must meet with the probation deputy either in-person or by telephone. During the period of probation, Respondent must promptly meet with the probation deputy as directed and upon request."

- (b) Respondent willfully violated this condition by failing to contact the Office of Probation and schedule the meeting prior to the expiration of the 30-day deadline.

- (c) Respondent did not comply with this condition until June 17, 2008 (and, even then, the initial contact was made by the Office of Probation, not respondent).

7. QUARTERLY REPORTING CONDITION.

(a) One of the conditions of probation required respondent to submit quarterly reports as follows:

“Respondent must submit written quarterly reports to the Office of Probation on each January 10, April 10, July 10, and October 10 of the period of probation. Under penalty of perjury, Respondent must state whether Respondent has complied with the State Bar Act, the Rules of Professional Conduct, and all conditions of probation during the preceding calendar quarter. Respondent must also state whether there are any proceedings pending against him or her in the State Bar Court and if so, the case number and current status of that proceeding. If the first report would cover less than 30 days, that report must be submitted on the next quarter date, and cover the extended period.

“In addition to all quarterly reports, a final report, containing the same information, is due no earlier than twenty (20) days before the last day of the period of probation and no later than the last day of probation;”

(b) Respondent willfully violated this probation condition by failing to timely submit three reports and by failing to submit the filing report at all, as follows:

| January 10, 2009 | January 13, 2009 |
