

STATE BAR COURT OF CALIFORNIA HEARING DEPARTMENT 845 S. Figueroa Street, Los Angeles, CA 90017-2515	FOR CLERK'S USE ONLY: FILED  OCT 11 2018 STATE BAR COURT CLERK'S OFFICE LOS ANGELES
In the Matter of: RAYMOND CARL PROSPERO, Member No. 238087, A Member of the State Bar	Case Nos: 10-O-08238, et al. (S198705) and 11-O-19314 et al (S208460) ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO MODIFY PROBATION CONDITION

On September 17, 2018, Respondent filed a motion seeking to modify the terms of his two probations to allow him to pay restitution obligations owed to three previously-designated payees to the Client Security Fund. On September 21, 2018, the State Bar Office of Probation filed a response to the motion, indicating that it had verified Respondent's difficulties in making payments directly to the designated payees and not opposing:

"requiring that Respondent pay to the Client Security Fund of the State Bar of California the following amounts for the benefit for the following payees:

Jessica Clark	$594.22
Pacita Leonor	$434.79
April Hunter	$2,184.86"

(State Bar Response, p. 2.)

Although not addressed by the parties, the situation is made complicated by the fact that the restitution obligation set forth in the probation conditions is also incorporated by reference in the Supreme Court two orders of suspension.

To make clear that Respondent's future satisfaction of a modified probation restitution condition will also satisfy the "and until" portion of the suspension order, the following modifications to the existing probation conditions are ordered:

In Case No. 10-O-08238, et al, the first sentence of paragraph “a” of the Financial Conditions, which reads “Respondent must pay restitution (including the principal amount, plus interest of 10% per annum) to the payee(s) listed below” is deleted and replaced with the following: “Respondent must make restitution (and furnish satisfactory proof of such restitution to the Office of Probation) to each of the following payees or such other recipient as may be designated by the Office of Probation or the State Bar Court.” In addition, pursuant to that amended provision, the Client Security Fund is hereby designated by this court to be the recipient of the restitution obligation owed by Respondent to payees Jessica Clark and Pacita Leonor.

In Case No. 11-O-19314, et al, the first sentence of paragraph “a” of the Financial Conditions, which reads “Respondent must pay restitution (including the principal amount, plus interest of 10% per annum) to the payee(s) listed below” is deleted and replaced with the following: “Respondent must make restitution (and furnish satisfactory proof of such restitution to the Office of Probation) to each of the following payees or such other recipient as may be designated by the Office of Probation or the State Bar Court.” In addition, pursuant to that amended provision, the Client Security Fund is hereby designated by this court to be recipient of the restitution obligation owed by Respondent to payee April Hunter.

Finally, the court modifies the restitution obligation for each of the three original payees identified above to require that satisfactory proof of restitution to the Client Security Fund for the benefit of those payees must be made within one calendar month of the effective date of this order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: October 11, 2018
