CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

8. The facts and circumstances surrounding the above-described violation did not involve moral turpitude but did involve other misconduct warranting discipline.

PENDING PROCEEDINGS.

The disclosure date referred to, on page 2, paragraph A(7), was June 9, 2011.

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

In re Hickey (1990) 50 Cal.3d 571 – Hickey received a three-year stayed suspension, three-years probation and a 30-day actual suspension for a criminal conviction of carrying a concealed weapon and failure to properly withdraw from legal representation in a client matter. Hickey's criminal offense also involved repeated acts of physical violence toward his wife and others. Hickey's offense and conduct is more serious than that of respondent.

Standard 2.10 – "Culpability of a member of a violation of any provision of the Business and Professions Code not specified in these standards or of a willful violation of any Rule of Professional Conduct not specified in these standards shall result in reproof or suspension according to the gravity of the offense or the harm, if any, to the victim, with due regard to the purposes of imposing discipline set forth in standard 1.3."

Standard 3.4 – "Final conviction of a member of a crime which does not involve moral turpitude inherently or in the facts and circumstances surrounding the crime's commission but which does involve other misconduct warranting discipline shall result in a sanction as prescribed under part B of these standards appropriate to the nature and extent of the misconduct found to have been committed by the member."

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed respondent that as of June 9, 2011, the prosecution costs in this matter are $2,287. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.
