FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

Respondent admits that the following facts are true and that he is culpable of violations of the specified statutes and/or Rules of Professional Conduct.

Case No. 13-O-12481 (Probation Violation)

FACTS:

10. On March 8, 2012, Respondent signed a stipulation in State Bar case number 11-H-18534 in which he agreed to receive a two-year stayed suspension conditioned on a two-year probation. By signing the stipulation, Respondent promised to comply with the probation conditions set forth in the stipulation.

11. On March 27, 2012, the stipulation and order approving were filed with the State Bar Court Clerk's office.

12. On August 9, 2012, the Supreme Court of California issued Order No. S202870 in which the Court suspended Respondent from the practice of law for two years, stayed, and placed Respondent on probation for a period of two years subject to compliance "with the conditions of probation recommended by the Hearing Department of the State Bar Court in its Order Approving Stipulation filed on March 27, 2012[.]" Soon thereafter, Respondent received the Supreme Court order, and was aware of its contents.

13. The Supreme Court's Order No. S202870 became effective on or about September 8, 2012.

14. CONTACT OFFICE OF PROBATION

a) One of the conditions of probation required Respondent to contact the Office of Probation as follows:

“Within thirty (30) days from the effective date of discipline, Respondent must contact the Office of Probation and schedule a meeting with Respondent’s assigned probation deputy to discuss these terms and conditions of probation. Under the direction of the Office of Probation, Respondent must meet with the probation deputy either in-person or by telephone. During the period of probation, Respondent must promptly meet with the probation deputy as directed and upon request.”

b) Respondent violated this condition by failing to contact the Office of Probation and schedule a meeting by October 8, 2012.

15. QUARTERLY REPORTING CONDITION

a) Another one of the conditions of probation required Respondent to submit reports as follows:

“Respondent must submit written quarterly reports to the Office of Probation on each January 10, April 10, July 10, and October 10 of the period of probation. Under penalty of perjury, Respondent must state whether Respondent has complied with the State Bar Act, the Rules of Professional Conduct, and all conditions of probation during the preceding calendar quarter. Respondent must also state whether there are any proceedings pending against him or her in the State Bar Court and if so, the case number and current status of that proceeding. If the first report would cover less than 30 days, that report must be submitted on the next quarter date, and cover the extended period.

In addition to all quarterly reports, a final report, containing the same information, is due no earlier than twenty (20) days before the last day of the period of probation and no later than the last day of probation.”

b) Respondent violated this condition by failing to timely submit the quarterly reports that were due no later than January 10, 2013 and April 10, 2013.

16. REPORT COMPLIANCE WITH UNDERLYING CRIMINAL PROBATION

a) Another probation condition required Respondent to report compliance with all conditions of probation imposed in the criminal matter underlying State Bar Case No. 08-C-13019 as follows:

“Respondent must comply with all conditions of probation imposed in the criminal matter underlying State Bar case no. 08-C-13019, and must so declare under penalty of perjury in conjunction with any quarterly report to be filed with the Office of Probation.

b) Respondent violated this condition by failing to report compliance with all conditions of probation imposed in the criminal matter underlying State Bar case no. 08-C-13019 in his quarterly reports that were due no later than January 10, 2013 and April 10, 2013.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

17. By failing to timely submit quarterly reports that were due no later than January 10, 2013 and April 10, 2013, by failing to timely contact the Office of Probation to schedule a meeting within 30 days from the effective date of discipline, and by failing to report compliance with all conditions of probation imposed in the criminal matter underlying State Bar case no. 08-C-13019 in his quarterly reports that were due no later than January 10, 2013 and April 10, 2013, Respondent failed to comply with all conditions attached to any disciplinary probation in wilful violation of Business and Professions Code, section 6068(k).

ADDITIONAL FACTS RE AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

Prior Record of Discipline (Std. 1.2(b)(i)): Respondent has been disciplined on two prior occasions. In case no. 08-C-13019, Respondent received a public reproof after stipulating to violating Business and Professions Code, section 6068(a) by violating Penal Code section 602(m) [trespass] in 2007. This discipline became effective September 14, 2010. In case no. 11-H-18534, Respondent was placed on two years' stayed suspension and two years' probation for failing to comply with the conditions attached to his reproof in case no. 08-C-13019. This discipline became effective September 8, 2012. These two prior disciplinary proceedings constitute an aggravating factor pursuant to Standard 1.2(b)(i).

Multiple Acts of Misconduct (Std. 1.2(b)(ii)): Respondent violated Business and Professions Code sections 6068(a) and 6068(k) in the two current matters. Further, Respondent engaged in multiple violations of the conditions attached to the stipulation from case no. 11-H-18534. These multiple acts of misconduct constitute an aggravating factor pursuant to Standard 1.2(b)(ii). (See In the Matter of Tiernan (Review Dept. 1996) 3 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 523, 529 [holding that failure to cooperate with probation monitor and failure to timely file probation reports constituted multiple acts of misconduct].)

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed respondent that as July 18, 2013, the prosecution costs in this matter are $10,722.10. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.
