On April 2, 2015, respondent David Laurence Naples filed motions for costs relief and for an extension of time during which to successfully complete Ethics School and the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE). On April 6, 2015, the Office of Probation, by Terrie Goldade, filed a response to the motion regarding Ethics School and the MPRE to which respondent filed a reply on April 20, 2015. The Office of the Chief Trial Counsel (State Bar), by Anand Kumar, filed a response to the costs motion on April 22, 2015.

Having considered the parties' contentions and good cause appearing, the court GRANTS each motion as follows:

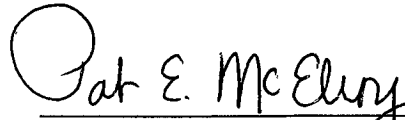

1) Respondent is awaiting the results of the March 28, 2015 MPRE and is registered for the May 7, 2015 session of Ethics School. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that he has until June 1, 2015 to provide proof of completion of the MPRE and Ethics School to the Office of Probation; and

2) The court GRANTS, on the grounds of financial hardship, an extension of time to pay the costs awarded in the captioned matters in four annual installments commencing with respondent's membership fees in 2016. Therefore, in accordance with Business and Professions Code section 6086.10, one-fourth of the costs must be paid with petitioner's membership fees for the years 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019. It is further ordered that if respondent does not pay any installment of disciplinary costs within the time provided herein or as may be modified by the State Bar Court pursuant to section 6086.10, subdivision (c), the remaining balance of the costs is due and payable immediately unless relief has been granted under the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.134.) The payment of costs is enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
