On April 17, 2012, Respondent, represented by attorney David Cameron Carr, filed a motion to aside the default previously entered in this matter. With that motion, he submitted a verified response admitting all of the allegations of the Notice of Disciplinary Charges in the case.

On April 24, 2012, the State Bar filed an opposition to the motion.

GOOD CAUSE APPEARING under the applicable rules, the court grants the motion to set the order entering Respondent's default and the order enrolling him inactive pursuant to Business and Professions Code section (e).

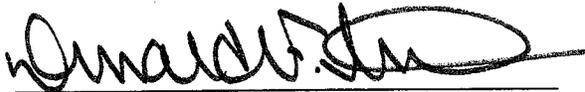

IN ADDITION, the court further orders that Respondent be restored to active status effective immediately.

FINALLY, the court orders that trial, with an estimate of one day, will commence on May 24, 2012, commencing at 9:30 a.m. A telephonic pretrial conference will be held on May 23, 2012, at 11:45 a.m. Pretrial conference statements must be prepared and filed on or before the close of business, May 21, 2012. With these new dates substituting for the previously scheduled dates, the parties are ordered to comply with the remaining provisions of this court's prior trial-setting order, the terms of which are referred to and incorporated herein by reference.

If the parties wish a settlement conference, they should contact the staff of this court and one will be arranged for them.
