On January 8, 2015, Respondent Thaddeus Julian Culpepper filed a Motion for Reconsideration of the court's December 19, 2014 order denying his request for an extension of time to take and pass the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE). On January 12, 2015, the Office of Probation of the State Bar filed an opposition arguing that Respondent failed to meet the requirements for filing a motion for reconsideration. On January 14, 2015, Respondent filed a reply asserting that his motion is based on "new or different facts or circumstances."

Good cause having been shown, Respondent's motion for reconsideration is granted. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 158.) Respondent has until May 4, 2015, to provide the required proof of passage of the MPRE to the Office of Probation. The court's prior order of suspension, effective on January 22, 2015, is vacated.
