

STATE BAR COURT OF CALIFORNIA  HEARING DEPARTMENT  845 S. Figueroa Street, Los Angeles, CA 90017-2515	FOR CLERK'S USE ONLY: FILED NS FEB 23 2017 STATE BAR COURT CLERK'S OFFICE LOS ANGELES
In the Matter of:  MICHAEL WAYNE CHAMP,  A Member of the State Bar, No. 95784	Case No: 11-O-18914  ORDER EXTENDING TIME FOR PAYMENT OF COSTS

This is Respondent's third request for an extension of the time for him to pay the disciplinary costs ordered in the captioned matter. The original amount of those costs was $15,782.56. Although Respondent has paid a portion of the costs, the balance remaining is said to be $12,626.05.

Respondent's original request for an extension of the time to pay the assessed costs resulted in this court allowing Respondent to pay the costs in five annual installments. While Respondent made an initial payment toward the costs, in November 2014 he requested that the schedule of payments be delayed for a year, with the first of the five payments being due in 2016, rather than 2015. That request was granted in December 2014.

Respondent then made the first installment payment, then due in 2016, but, on February 8, 2017, filed the instant motion, now seeking to have the balance of the payments be delayed for an additional year with the next installment payment being due in 2018. In support of that request, he provided a declaration and financial statement showing his inability to pay the required costs without financial hardship.

On February 16, 2017, the State Bar filed a response to the motion, indicating that it did not object to a further extension being granted, but asking that the overall duration of the installment payment schedule be compressed by one year.

GOOD CAUSE having been shown, the installment plan set forth in this court's prior order is modified to delay its continuation for one year. Hence, one-fourth of the remaining costs must be paid by Respondent with his membership fees for each of the years 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021. All of the other terms of that order remain in effect.

This court declines to compress the payment schedule previously created by this court. Such a compression would result in each of the annual payments being increased significantly. Given the current uncertainty of Respondent's present and future income stream, such an increase appears to be unsupported by anticipated income.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
