Substance Abuse Conditions

- a.  Respondent must abstain from use of any alcoholic beverages, and shall not use or possess any narcotics, dangerous or restricted drugs, controlled substances, marijuana, or associated paraphernalia, except with a valid prescription.
- b.  Respondent must attend at least two (2) meetings per month of:
  - Alcoholics Anonymous
  - Narcotics Anonymous

- c.  Respondent must select a license medical laboratory approved by the Office of Probation. Respondent must furnish to the laboratory blood and/or urine samples as may be required to show that Respondent has abstained from alcohol and/or drugs. The samples must be furnished to the laboratory in such a manner as may be specified by the laboratory to ensure specimen integrity. Respondent must cause the laboratory to provide to the Office of Probation, at the Respondent's expense, a screening report on or before the tenth day of each month of the condition or probation period, containing an analysis of Respondent's blood and/or urine obtained not more than ten (10) days previously.
- d.  Respondent must maintain with the Office of Probation a current address and a current telephone number at which Respondent can be reached. Respondent must return any call from the Office of Probation concerning testing of Respondent's blood or urine within twelve (12) hours. Revocation of any medical waiver is a violation of this condition. Other:

Respondent recognizes that the facts and circumstances underlying her conviction, including the fact that she blew a .147 on the PAS, suggests an alcohol and/or drug problem that needs to be addressed before it affects Respondent's legal practice. Respondent agrees to take the steps necessary to control the use of alcohol and/or drugs such that it will not affect Respondent's law practice in the future. Respondent's agreement to participate in an abstinence-based self-help group (as defined herein), as a condition of discipline, is part of Respondent's efforts to address such concerns.

As a condition of reprobation, and during the period of reprobation, Respondent must attend a minimum of two (2) meetings per month of any abstinence-based self-help group of Respondent's choosing, including without limitation Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, LifeRing, S.M.A.R.T., S.O.S., etc. Other self-help maintenance programs are acceptable if they include a subculture to support recovery, including abstinence-based group meetings. (See O'Conner v. Calif. (C.D. Calif. 1994) 855 F. Supp. 303 [no First Amendment violation where probationer given choice between AA and secular program.] ) Respondent is encouraged, but not required, to obtain a "sponsor" during the term of participation in these meetings.

The program called "Moderation Management" is not acceptable because it is not abstinence-based and allows the participant to continue consuming alcohol.

Respondent must contact the Office of Probation and obtain written approval for the program Respondent has selected prior to attending the first self-help group meeting. If Respondent wants to change groups, Respondent must first obtain the Office of Probation's written approval prior to attending a meeting with the new self-help group.

Respondent must provide to the Office of Probation satisfactory proof of attendance of the meetings set forth herein with each Quarterly Report submitted to the Office of Probation. Respondent may not sign as the verifier of her own attendance.

Respondent is encouraged, but is not required, to participate in the Lawyers' Assistance Program, to abstain from alcohol and illegal drugs, and to undergo random urinalysis testing to complement abstinence.

STIPULATION RE FACTS, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND DISPOSITION

IN THE MATTER OF:                     ANN KIM WALTZER
CASE NUMBER:                         12-C-14491-PEM

FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

Respondent admits that the following facts are true and that the facts and circumstances surrounding the offense for which she was convicted involved other misconduct warranting discipline.

Case No. 12-C-14491 (Conviction Proceedings)

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND IN CONVICTION PROCEEDING:

1. This is a proceeding pursuant to sections 6101 and 6102 of the Business and Professions Code and rule 9.10 of the California Rules of Court.

2. On May 30, 2012, the Santa Clara County District Attorney filed a criminal complaint in the Santa Clara Superior Court, case no. C1233631, charging Respondent with one count of violation of Penal Code section 415 [Disturbing the Peace by Fighting, Loud Noise, or Offensive Words], a misdemeanor, one count of violation of Penal Code section 148(a)(1) [Resisting, Delaying, Obstructing an Officer], a misdemeanor, and one count of violation of Penal Code section 242-243(b) [Battery on a Peace Officer], a misdemeanor.

3. On April 15, 2013, the court entered Respondent's plea of nolo contendere to the count of violation of Penal Code section 148(a)(1) [Resisting, Delaying, Obstructing an Officer], a misdemeanor, and to the count of violation of Penal Code section 242-243(b) [Battery on a Peace Officer], a misdemeanor, and based thereon, the court found Respondent guilty of those counts.

4. At the time of entry of the plea, the court sentenced Respondent to two years of formal probation, four days in jail, which was deemed served, and further ordered, among other things, that Respondent perform 50 hours of volunteer work with the Sentencing Alternative Program ("SAP"), attend 60 Alcoholics Anonymous meetings, and pay fines totaling $792.

5. On February 14, 2014, the Review Department of the State Bar Court issued an order referring the matter to the Hearing Department for a hearing and decision recommending the discipline to be imposed in the event that the Hearing Department finds that the facts and circumstances surrounding the offense(s) for which Respondent was convicted involved moral turpitude or other misconduct warranting discipline.

FACTS:

6. On April 27, 2012, at approximately 10:15p.m., four San Jose police officers responded in full uniform to a report of a disturbance by two heavily intoxicated individuals at the Hotel Valencia on Santana Row in San Jose. When the police officers arrived, they observed Respondent and another individual yelling at hotel security.

7. When one of the responding officers began questioning Respondent, he observed that Respondent had watery eyes, a flushed complexion, emitted a moderate odor of alcohol, engaged in boisterous belligerent behavior, and was unable to follow directions.

8. At one point, while one of the responding officers was speaking to Respondent's companion, Respondent walked between them and grabbed the officer's hand. The officer immediately pulled her hand off of him, and told her not to place her hands on him. Respondent then became verbally abusive, stating that she was a lawyer and knew her rights.

9. The police officers were notified that the hotel had refunded Respondent's money and wanted Respondent and her companion to leave the premises. The police officers then escorted Respondent and her companion to their hotel room to retrieve their belongings. One of the officers proceeded to enter the hotel room with Respondent, and placed a towel on the door to hold it open. Respondent yelled at the officers, attempted to close the door, and was advised by the officers that the door needed to stay open. Respondent again attempted to close the door, and was again advised by officers to keep the door open. Respondent then walked into the middle of the room, reversed direction towards the door, removed the towel, and slammed the door shut. Hotel security was able to open the door again, and Respondent again grabbed the door to shut it again. One of the police officers braced his foot on the door, pushed Respondent back, grabbed her right hand which was holding onto the door, advised Respondent that she was under arrest, and attempted to turn Respondent around. Respondent began pulling her right hand out of the officer's hold and attempted to push him away with her left hand. The officer grabbed both of her arms, performed a leg sweep, and guided Respondent to the ground. Respondent continued to resist by attempting to break free and by not complying with the officer's commands. The officer proceeded to handcuff Respondent, and remove her from the hotel room.

10. As Respondent was being escorted to the elevator, Respondent made disrespectful remarks to the officer, turned and spit in the officer's face. The saliva entered the officer's eye. Respondent then pulled away from the officer's hold. The officer requested back-up as he was temporarily blinded. Hotel security quickly responded, and held Respondent down until additional officers arrived. Respondent was then placed in a patrol car and taken to county jail.

11. The officer performed a preliminary alcohol screening breath test to measure the alcohol content of Respondent's breath. The test results showed Respondent's BAC was .147.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

12. The facts and circumstances surrounding the offenses did not involve moral turpitude but did involve other misconduct warranting discipline. (See e.g., In re Otto (1989) 48 Cal.3d 970 [no moral turpitude for two misdemeanor convictions of assault by means likely to produce great bodily injury and infliction of corporal punishment on a cohabitant of the opposite sex resulting in a traumatic condition]; In the Matter of Stewart (Review Dept. 1994) 3 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 52 [no moral turpitude for misdemeanor battery of police officer where Respondent was intoxicated].)

MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

No Prior Discipline (Std. 1.6(a)): Although Respondent's misconduct is serious, she is entitled to some mitigation for having practiced law for approximately 12 years without discipline (Respondent was on inactive status for approximately 15 years). (In the Matter of Riordan (Review Dept. 2007) 5 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 41, 49.)

Pretrial Stipulation: Respondent is entitled to mitigation for entering into a full stipulation with the Office of Chief Trial Counsel prior to trial, thereby saving State Bar Court time and resources. (Silva-Vidor v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 1071, 1079 [where mitigative credit was given for entering into a stipulation as to facts and culpability].)

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

The Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct "set forth a means for determining the appropriate disciplinary sanction in a particular case and to ensure consistency across cases dealing with similar misconduct and surrounding circumstances." (Rules Proc. of State Bar, tit. IV, Stds. for Atty. Sanctions for Prof. Misconduct, std. 1.1. All further references to Standards are to this source.) The Standards help fulfill the primary purposes of discipline, which include: protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession; maintenance of the highest professional standards; and preservation of public confidence in the legal profession. (See std. 1.1; In re Morse (1995) 11 Cal.4th 184, 205.)

Although not binding, the standards are entitled to "great weight" and should be followed "whenever possible" in determining level of discipline. (In re Silverton (2005) 36 Cal.4th 81, 92, quoting In re Brown (1995) 12 Cal.4th 205, 220 and In re Young (1989) 49 Cal.3d 257, 267, fn. 11.) Adherence to the standards in the great majority of cases serves the valuable purpose of eliminating disparity and assuring consistency, that is, the imposition of similar attorney discipline for instances of similar attorney misconduct. (In re Naney (1990) 51 Cal.3d 186, 190.) If a recommendation is at the high end or low end of a Standard, an explanation must be given as to how the recommendation was reached. (Std. 1.1.) "Any disciplinary recommendation that deviates from the Standards must include clear reasons for the departure." (Std. 1.1; Blair v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 762, 776, fn. 5.)

In determining whether to impose a sanction greater or less than that specified in a given Standard, in addition to the factors set forth in the specific Standard, consideration is to be given to the primary purposes of discipline; the balancing of all aggravating and mitigating circumstances; the type of misconduct at issue; whether the client, public, legal system or profession was harmed; and the member's willingness and ability to conform to ethical responsibilities in the future. (Stds. 1.7(b) and (c).)

Here, Respondent was convicted of two misdemeanors. The facts and circumstances surrounding the offenses did not involve moral turpitude.

Standard 2.12(b) applies to misdemeanors not involving moral turpitude and provides that "[s]uspension or reproof is appropriate for final conviction of a misdemeanor not involving moral turpitude but involving other misconduct warranting discipline." Here, Respondent was convicted of resisting, delaying, obstructing an officer and battery on a peace officer. There are no aggravating circumstances in this matter. In mitigation, Respondent has no prior record of discipline and entered into a pre-trial stipulation. Based on the facts and circumstances of this case, a level of discipline at the lower end of the range of discipline set forth in Standard 2.12(b) is appropriate.

Caselaw is also instructive. In In re Otto, supra, 48 Cal.3d 970, the attorney was convicted of two felonies - assault by means likely to produce great bodily injury, and infliction of corporal punishment on a cohabitant of the opposite sex resulting in a traumatic condition, both of which were reduced to misdemeanors by the trial court. (Id. at p. 971.) The Supreme Court ordered the attorney suspended for two years, stayed, conditioned on a two-year probation and six-month actual suspension. (Id. at p. 972.) Respondent's misconduct is significantly less egregious than that in Otto, and therefore warrants a significantly lesser level of discipline than imposed in Otto.

Balancing all of the appropriate factors, a public reproof with substance abuse conditions is consistent with the Standards and caselaw, and will serve the purposes of attorney discipline.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed Respondent that as of March 26, 2014, the prosecution costs in this matter are $2,392.00. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

EXCLUSION FROM MCLE CREDIT

Pursuant to rule 3201, Respondent may not receive MCLE credit for completion of State Bar Ethics School. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 3201.)
