On May 15, 2015, Respondent Kimuel Wayne Lee filed a Motion requesting a modification to the terms of his probation. Respondent requests an extension of time to file proof of passage of the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE). In addition, Respondent filed a Memorandum of Points and Authorities on May 15, 2015, which he requests to be sealed. The Office of Probation of the State Bar (OP) filed a response on May 19, 2015, opposing an extension. OP does not oppose sealing the portion of the Memorandum regarding Respondent's son. Respondent replied on May 27, 2015.

The Court grants the request to seal his Memorandum. The clerk is ordered to keep the Memorandum regarding Respondent's son under seal pursuant to rule 5.12 of the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar.

Finding good cause, the Court grants Respondent's Motion and extends the time that he has to take and pass the MPRE. Respondent has until September 21, 2015, to provide proof of passage of the MPRE. The Court will not grant any further extensions for Respondent regarding the MPRE. This Order does not limit or alter the suspension order entered by the Court on May 8, 2015.
