	)	ORDER SETTING ASIDE DEFAULT
Member No. 176065	)	AND SETTING STATUS CONFERENCE
	)
A Member of the State Bar.	)

On April 30, 2013, respondent Todd Eugene Marsh filed a motion to set aside his default entered in this matter on November 2, 2012, when he failed to file a verified response to the Notice of Disciplinary Charges (NDC). The State Bar opposes the motion.

The court has carefully read the papers filed by both parties. It is the policy of this court to hear matters on their merits, where appropriate. It appears to the court that respondent's failure to file a verified response to the NDC was a result of respondent's mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect, within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure, section 473, subdivision (b). As such, the motion is granted, effective as of the date of this order.

Respondent is ordered to file the original of his verified response to the NDC within two days of the service of this order.

Respondent's involuntary inactive enrollment imposed by the court's November 2, 2012, order is terminated, effective as of the date of this order.

A status conference is set for June 13, 2013 at 4:30 p.m. to discuss new trial and related dates.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
