On February 8, 2016, petitioner Jamilla Ann Moore sought relief from or an extension of time to comply with the order assessing disciplinary costs in State Bar Court case no. 12-O-11820.¹ (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.130.) Petitioner’s motion was based on financial hardship. (See Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.130(B).) On February 19, 2016, the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California (State Bar) filed a response. In its response, the State Bar opposed full or partial relief from costs, but did not oppose an extension of time to pay.

After reviewing the parties’ pleadings, the court issues the following orders:

1. Petitioner’s motion for full or partial relief from payment of disciplinary costs is DENIED, no good cause having been shown; and

¹ This motion included a motion to extend time to complete the State Bar’s Ethics School. The court has addressed the motion to extend time in a separate order.

2. Good cause having been shown, the court GRANTS an extension of time for Petitioner to comply with the order to pay disciplinary costs. The court orders that Petitioner's time to pay the remaining disciplinary costs associated with case no. 12-O-11820 be extended and that one-fourth of said costs is to be paid with Petitioner's annual State Bar membership fees for the years 2017, 2018, 2019, and 2020. The court further ORDERS that, if Petitioner fails to pay any installment of disciplinary costs within the time provided herein or as may be modified by the State Bar Court pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 6086.10, subdivision (c), the remaining balance of the costs is due and payable immediately unless relief has been granted under the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.134). The payment of costs remains enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: February 29, 2016

LUCY ARMENDARIZ
Judge of the State Bar Court

² Petitioner also requested that the court extend the time for her to pay her "standard annual bar dues." As noted by the State Bar, the court lacks jurisdiction to issue such an order. Accordingly, that request is DENIED.
