In the Matter of: STEPHEN DOUGLAS ZUCKERMAN, Member No. 47329, A Member of the State Bar	Case No(s): 12-O-13220-DFM ORDER GRANTING AND DENYING WITHOUT PREJUDICE REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF PROBATION OBLIGATIONS

On October 10, 2013, Respondent sent a letter request to this court containing "a request for a 6 month delay in fulfilling my requirements of probation." The letter referred to medical problems and an inability to pay, but was unaccompanied by any declaration or supporting documents.

On October 16, 2013, the Office of Probation filed an opposition to the motion, noting the uncertainty of what was being requested and the lack of supporting information.

A review of the obligations created by the Supreme Court's order reveals that Respondent is obligated to provide quarterly reports, present proof of passage of the State Bar Ethics School by May 22, 2014, and present proof of passage of the MPRE by that same date. The MPRE is not a condition of probation, but a separate obligation imposed by the Supreme Court order.

In addition, Respondent is obligated to pay costs as part of his State Bar dues in 2014. Again, that is not a condition of probation.

In the event that Respondent wished to delay his obligation to present proof of passage of the Ethics School and/or the MPRE, he needs to so state. If he is basing his request on medical problems, he needs to provide his own declaration and supporting medical evidence. If he is basing the request on an inability to pay for the classes, he needs to attach a completed and accurate financial statement, using the form available on the State Bar's website. In that regard, Respondent is advised to investigate the possibility of a cost waiver or other financial assistance with regard to the State Bar Ethics class.

There needs to be no basis for delaying or deferring Respondent's obligation to provide quarterly reports. They cost no money to complete and submit, and there is no basis established for this court to conclude that Respondent would be unable to fill out the forms.

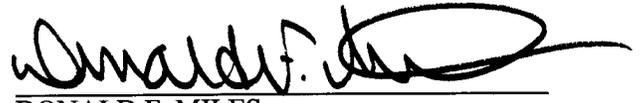

To the extent that October 10, 2013 report was due at the time that Respondent made his October 10, 2013 request for an extension, the deadline for that one report is extended for 30 days, until November 10, 2013. That extension does not affect the deadline for Respondent's filing of the required January 10, 2014 quarterly report or any of the other required reports.

Except as provided in the foregoing paragraph, the balance of Respondent's request is DENIED without prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: October 24, 2013
