Member No. 168848,	)	COST RELIEF AND GRANTING
	)	EXTENSION OF TIME TO PAY COSTS
A Member of the State Bar.	)	IN INSTALLMENTS
	)

On May 21, 2015, respondent Jon Eric Gelb filed a motion for relief from payment of costs awarded in the above-captioned disciplinary matter or, in the alternative, an extension of time in which to pay disciplinary costs (motion) on the grounds of financial hardship.

On June 1, 2015, the State Bar of California, Office of the Chief Trial Counsel (State Bar), by and through Deputy Trial Counsel Lara Bairamian, filed a response to respondent's motion, opposing his request for relief from payment of the assessed disciplinary costs, but stating its non-opposition to the granting of an extension of time to pay the disciplinary costs in installments.

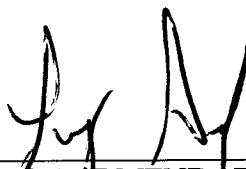

Having considered the parties' contentions, the court DENIES the motion for relief from costs; but, alternatively, on the grounds of severe financial hardship, GRANTS an extension of time to pay the costs awarded in the above-captioned matter in two annual installments, commencing with respondent's membership fees in 2016. Therefore, in accordance with Business and Professions Code section 6086.10, one-half of the costs must be paid with respondent's membership fees for the years 2016 and 2017.

It is further ordered that if respondent does not pay any installment of disciplinary costs within the time provided herein or as may be modified by the State Bar Court pursuant to section 6086.10, subdivision (c), the remaining balance of the costs is due and payable immediately unless relief has been granted under the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.134.) The payment of costs is enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
