STIPULATION RE FACTS, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND DISPOSITION

IN THE MATTER OF:                      FRANK EDWARD MILLER

CASE NUMBER:                              13-C-16592-LMA

FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

Respondent admits that the following facts are true and that the facts and circumstances surrounding the offense for which he was convicted involved other misconduct warranting discipline.

Case No. 13-C-16592 (Conviction Proceedings)

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND IN CONVICTION PROCEEDING:

1. This is a proceeding pursuant to sections 6101 and 6102 of the Business and Professions Code and rule 9.10 of the California Rules of Court.
2. On September 17, 2013, a criminal complaint was filed charging respondent with one count of violation of California Penal Code section 243(e)(1), a misdemeanor [battery against a person with whom defendant was co-habiting].
3. On January 15, 2013, the court entered respondent's plea of nolo contendere to the count of violation of Penal Code section 243(e)(1).
4. On January 15, 2013, the court found respondent guilty and imposed a suspended sentence, and a three year period of probation, with conditions that he serve four days in jail, perform community service, attend a domestic violence program and pay related fees and assessments.
5. On February 21, 2014, the Review Department of the State Bar Court issued an order referring the matter to the Hearing Department for a hearing and decision recommending the discipline to be imposed in the event that the Hearing Department finds that the facts and circumstances surrounding the offense(s) for which Respondent was convicted involved moral turpitude or other misconduct warranting discipline.

FACTS:

6. On September 15, 2013, police were called to the residence of respondent's former girlfriend, with whom he had been living for four years, although they had not been dating for two years.
7. Respondent's former girlfriend told the police that she and respondent had been drinking and began arguing about their living arrangement. She attempted to call the police when she felt the argument was getting out of hand and respondent tried to grab the phone away from her. She attempted to draw away, when she claims respondent struck her on her left arm with his right fist, causing her pain.

8. Police arrived at the scene. Respondent's father, who lived in a guest apartment on the premises, told police he saw respondent strike his former girlfriend. Respondent does admits that he struck his former girlfriend on the arm. Respondent was arrested at the scene for violation of Penal Code, section 243(e)(1).

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

9. The facts and circumstances surrounding the above-described violation did not involve moral turpitude but did involve other misconduct warranting discipline.

AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

Prior Record of Discipline (Std. 1.5(a)): Respondent has a record of two prior State Bar disciplinary matters.

05-O-01664

Respondent received a private reproof, effective November 21, 2005, for misconduct in a single client matter wherein he failed to refund unearned advanced fees of $2,204.50 following termination of his employment.

07-O-10009

Respondent received a public reproof, effective July 8, 2009, for misconduct in a single client matter, involving failure to perform, failure to communicate, failure to refund unearned advanced fees, and failure to comply with a court order to pay judicial sanctions.

Harm (Std. 1.5(f)): The crime of which respondent was convicted involved actual harm to a victim of the crime, in that she was injured and believed she was in danger. (See In the Matter of Burns (Review Dept. 1995) 3 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr 406, 414 [harm considered as aggravation in matter involving criminal battery where victim was struck and believed he was in danger].)

MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

Pretrial Stipulation - Respondent is entitled to mitigation for entering into a full stipulation with the Office of Chief Trial Counsel prior to the trial of the present matter, thereby saving State Bar Court time and resources (See Silva-Vidor v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 1071, 1079 [where mitigative credit was given for entering into a stipulation as to facts and culpability].)

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

The Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct "set forth a means for determining the appropriate disciplinary sanction in a particular case and to ensure consistency across cases dealing with similar misconduct and surrounding circumstances." (Rules Proc. of State Bar, tit. IV, Stds. for Atty. Sanctions for Prof. Misconduct, std. 1.1. All further references to Standards are to this source.) The Standards help fulfill the primary purposes of discipline, which include: protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession; maintenance of the highest professional standards; and preservation of public confidence in the legal profession. (See std. 1.1; In re Morse (1995) 11 Cal.4th 184, 205.)

Although not binding, the standards are entitled to “great weight” and should be followed “whenever possible” in determining level of discipline. (In re Silverton (2005) 36 Cal.4th 81, 92, quoting In re Brown (1995) 12 Cal.4th 205, 220 and In re Young (1989) 49 Cal.3d 257, 267, fn. 11.) Adherence to the standards in the great majority of cases serves the valuable purpose of eliminating disparity and assuring consistency, that is, the imposition of similar attorney discipline for instances of similar attorney misconduct. (In re Naney (1990) 51 Cal.3d 186, 190.) If a recommendation is at the high end or low end of a Standard, an explanation must be given as to how the recommendation was reached. (Std. 1.1.) “Any disciplinary recommendation that deviates from the Standards must include clear reasons for the departure.” (Std. 1.1; Blair v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 762, 776, fn. 5.)

In determining whether to impose a sanction greater or less than that specified in a given standard, in addition to the factors set forth in the specific standard, consideration is to be given to the primary purposes of discipline; the balancing of all aggravating and mitigating circumstances; the type of misconduct at issue; whether the client, public, legal system or profession was harmed; and the member’s willingness and ability to conform to ethical responsibilities in the future. (Stds. 1.7(b) and (c).)

Standard 1.8 (b) provides:

If a member has two or more prior records of discipline, disbarment is appropriate in the following circumstances, unless the most compelling mitigating circumstances clearly predominate or the misconduct underlying the prior discipline occurred during the same time period as the current misconduct:

1. Actual suspension was ordered in any of the prior disciplinary matters;
2. The prior disciplinary matters coupled with the current record demonstrate a pattern of misconduct; or
3. The prior disciplinary matters coupled with the current record demonstrate the member’s unwillingness or inability to conform to ethical responsibilities.

In the present matter, although respondent has a record of two prior disciplinary matters, neither one involved actual suspension. Likewise, the prior disciplinary matters, coupled with the current misconduct, do not demonstrate a pattern or an unwillingness or inability to conform to ethical responsibilities. Accordingly, disbarment is not appropriate. However, respondent’s record of discipline is serious and substantial aggravation should be afforded therefore.

Standard 2.12(b) is the applicable standard in cases such as this, where a respondent has been convicted of a crime that does not on its face or in the surrounding facts and circumstances involve moral turpitude. This standard provides suspension or reproof is appropriate for final conviction of a misdemeanor not involving moral turpitude but involving other misconduct warranting discipline.

Since Standard 2.12(b) is so broad, consulting case law is helpful. In In re Hickey (1990) 50 Cal. 3d 571, Hickey was convicted of one misdemeanor violation of Penal Code section 12025(b) [carrying a concealed weapon] arising from an incident at a nightclub during which he struck his wife in the head with a gun and later threatened her. The Court found Hickey’s conduct warranted discipline. After trial, the discipline adopted was three years of probation, three years stayed suspension, and 30 days actual suspension. Hickey had no prior discipline but the Supreme Court did find that his misconduct demonstrated a pattern of abuse.

In the present matter, actual suspension is appropriate. Although respondent is entitled to mitigation for entering into the present pre-trial stipulation, aggravating circumstances clearly prevail, particularly respondent's two prior disciplinary matters and the harm to the victim of respondent's crime. Accordingly, discipline greater than that afforded in Hickey is warranted. A two year suspension, stayed, with two years of probation, including an actual suspension for the first sixty days, serves the purpose of protecting the public, the courts and the legal system.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed respondent that as of January 16, 2015, the prosecution costs in this matter are $5,249. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

EXCLUSION FROM MCLE CREDIT

Pursuant to rule 3201, Respondent may not receive MCLE credit for completion of State Bar ethics School. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 3201.)
