- [illegible]

1 sent to me with deadlines. I responded that I had NEVER received such a letter
2 at which time I was told to look in my office for it. After I did as instructed, I
3 called Ms. Fernandez back some days later to tell her that no such letter had 4 been received by my office. At this point, another letter dated November 20,
5 2013 from Ms. Fernandez was sent to my office.

- 6 4. The letter dated November 20, 2013 contained the previous letter dated
7 September 20, 2013 which I discovered was addressed incorrectly.
8 Nevertheless, the 9.20 Declaration of Compliance was included in the 9 paperwork received from Ms. Fernandez on or about November 22, 2013. I
10 PROMPTLY completed the 9.20 Declaration of Compliance and mailed it to the 11 State Bar Court at 1149 South Hill Street, the address indicated on the form
12 (See Exhibit 1 to Answer – Declaration of Compliance). Due to the lateness of 13 the receipt of the form which was not received until AFTER the November 6,
14 2013 date, there was no possible way that I could have filed it before the stated
15 deadline in the September 20, 2013 letter and since Ms. Fernandez was aware
16 that I had not received the form prior to her mailing the November 20, 2013
17 letter, I felt that mailing the declaration of compliance would be ok. To wit, any
18 such violation for not filing it before November 6, 2013 WAS NOT WILLFUL as I
19 mailed it soon after its receipt on or about November 21, 2013.
- 20 5. Thereafter, I complied with the other conditions of my probation. I have made 21 restitution as instructed (Attachment 3 – Letter to Timothy G. Byer dated 2/17/14
22 re restitution payments). I have taken the MPRE exam on 3/29/14 (Attachment
23 4 – MPRE registration and fee receipt). I have timely filed my Quarterly Reports
24 to the Probation Office (Attachment 5 – Quarterly Report). Lastly, I have paid all 25 the costs of litigation as ordered by the Court. (Attachment 6 – receipt for 26 payment of costs and bar fees).
- 27 6. On or about January 31, 2014, I received a Notice of Intent to File Notice of 28 Disciplinary Charges from Timothy G. Byer, Deputy Trial Counsel for the State

1 Bar of California. Immediately after receiving the Notice of Intent, I attempted to
2 contact Mr. Byer regarding the notice (See Attachment 3 noted above). When I
3 finally was able to speak with Mr. Byer, I mistakenly thought the notice was 4 about the 9.20 requirement regarding a restitution payment in my client trust
5 account that I had been attempting to have evaluated by a CPA on my Quarterly
6 Report. Therefore, when Mr. Byer told me to just get the 9.20 material in and 7 that he didn't need a copy, I obtained the needed information and served the 8 missing report pages on Ms. May Fernandez.

- 9 7. It wasn't until this Notice of Disciplinary Charges was received by me and 10 Attorney Renee' Sanders thoroughly read it that I realized that Mr. Byer had 11 been speaking of the 9.20 Declaration of Compliance that I had already sent to 12 the court but which OBVIOUSLY the court did not receive! Had I realized that
13 when speaking with Mr. Byer, I would have had the already sent declaration
14 hand delivered to the State Bar Court! It was my reliance on the U.S. Postal 15 Service and my own confusion about what the Notice of Intent was really about 16 that was the cause of the missing Declaration of Compliance and NOT that I was 17 willfully attempting to violate rule 9.20!

18
19 Based on the foregoing reasons, I hereby respectfully request that the court find the 20 following:

- 21 a. I did not fail to file a declaration of compliance with California Rules of 22 Court, rule 9.20 in conformity with the requirements of rule 9.20(c) with the 23 clerk of the State Bar Court by October 6, 2013 as required by Supreme
24 order no. S211547
25 b. I did not willfully violate California Rules of Court, rule 9.20
26 c. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code Section 6007(c) I do not pose
27 a substantial threat of harm to the interest of her clients or to the public
28

1 and therefore should not be involuntarily enrolled as an inactive member
2 of the state bar

- 3 d. I should not be subject to further public or private discipline and any 4 associated costs thereof for failure to file a declaration of compliance with 5 California Rules of Court, rule 9.20 in conformity with the requirements of 6 rule 9.20(c) with the clerk of the State Bar Court by October 6, 2013 as
7 required by Supreme Court order no. S211547
8

9 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that
10 the foregoing is true and correct.

In the Matter of Ollie P. Manago

Dear Ollie P. Manago:

On September 20, 2013, this office sent to you a letter (copy enclosed) for the purpose of reminding you of the terms and conditions of your probation imposed by the Supreme Court which became effective September 27, 2013.

One of those conditions requires that you pay restitution and provide satisfactory proof of payment to the Office of Probation no later than 30 days after the effective date of your order. Your satisfactory proof of full payment was due by October 27, 2013. This letter is to advise you that the Office of Probation has not received your satisfactory proof of full payment. Please submit the required proof immediately.

Please note that you were also late in contacting the Office of Probation for the purpose of scheduling a meeting with your assigned probation deputy. Your contact was due within thirty (30) days of the effective date of your probation by October 27, 2013. You did not contact the Office of Probation to schedule your meeting until October 28, 2013. You are reminded that if you are even one day late, you are not in compliance with your probation.

The Office of Probation does not intend to send any further reminder letters regarding the aforementioned non-compliance or any future compliance due dates or lack of receipt of compliance documentation. Your non-compliance can be automatically referred for review and determination of further action which may lead to the imposition of additional discipline including attendant costs, copy of current costs enclosed.

Likewise, if for any reason, you cannot timely comply with the terms and conditions of the discipline imposed, and to avoid a non-compliance referral, you must file a motion with the State Bar Court. See rules 5.162 and 5.300, et seq., Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California. A copy of the motion must be served upon the Office of Probation. The Office of Probation does not have the authority to extend compliance due dates or modify the terms and conditions of your probation.

Please note that even if you are referred, you are STILL REQUIRED TO TIMELY COMPLY with all probation conditions in this matter. Additional violations may be subject to a separate non-compliance referral. If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact me at (213) 765-1035.

Sincerely,

In re: S211547 (12-O-11428 et al)

In the Matter of Ollie P. Manago

Dear Ollie P. Manago:

This reminder letter is sent to you as a courtesy and based upon information that you are not currently represented by counsel in this matter—the enforcement of your probation terms and conditions. If this is incorrect, please complete the Notice of Counsel Representation form and submit the original to the Office of Probation within five days so that future communications may be directed to your counsel.

As you know, on August 28, 2013, the Supreme Court of California filed an Order, effective September 27, 2013, suspending you from the practice of law for a period of one (1) year, staying execution and placing you on probation upon certain conditions for a period of two (2) years. Further, pursuant to the Order of the Court, you have been placed on actual suspension for the first six (6) months of your probation.¹

Please take notice that attorneys are not relieved of MCLE requirements during the pendency of their disciplinary period.

Rule of Professional Conduct 1-311 requires that a firm or attorney who employs an attorney who is disbarred, resigned, suspended or involuntarily enrolled inactive, provide certain notices to the State Bar and to clients. While there is no prescribed form, in order to assist attorneys to comply with the rule, the State Bar has created notices for the employer's use. If you are or become employed by an attorney or a law firm, please remind your employer of this requirement. Forms are available at the State Bar website under Attorney Forms/Reportable Actions or you may contact the Intake Unit, Office of the Chief Trial Counsel, at (213) 765-1000.

You must also schedule a meeting with me to discuss the terms and conditions of your discipline within 30 days from the effective date of discipline.

¹ Please review your stipulation or decision carefully. You may have been ordered to remain on actual suspension until you have fully paid the costs imposed as a result of your discipline. The Office of Probation does NOT monitor costs. If you have questions, contact Membership Billing at (415) 538-2360.

The Court has also ordered you to comply with the provisions of Rule 9.20, California Rules of Court. Your affidavit must be timely filed with the State Bar Court by no later than November 6, 2013. Do NOT submit your original affidavit to the Office of Probation.

Additionally, by court order, you must take and provide proof of successful passage of the Multi-State Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE) to the Office of Probation on or before September 27, 2014. It is important that you plan to take this examination well in advance of the due date so that you can re-take the examination if you do not receive a passing score. The MPRE is only offered three times a year. Failure to provide proof of passage of this examination by the due date may result in your indefinite suspension until you provide proof that you have passed the examination. (See Segretti v. State Bar (1976) 15 Cal.3d 878, 891, fn 8.)

In order to comply with the terms and conditions of your probation, you must report the status of your compliance, in each and every respect, by letter with any attachments, executed under penalty of perjury, and addressed to the Office of Probation. As a courtesy, the Office of Probation has prepared a Quarterly Report form for your use. Should you happen to lose your Quarterly Report form, you must submit your request for a copy in writing explaining why you could not maintain a copy for yourself.

Each of your reports must be a clear and unequivocal statement of compliance. See In the Matter of Carr (Review Dept. 1992) 2 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 244. If it is not, it can be rejected for filing.

Please review the Quarterly Report carefully to determine whether you believe that it accurately reflects the required terms and conditions. If you believe there is an error, or if you have any questions, please notify me immediately. You are responsible for timely complying with each and every term and condition whether or not it is reflected in this letter and/or the Quarterly Report form.

The conditions of your probation with compliance due dates are outlined below. Please note this summary only reflects those conditions and compliance due dates that require submission of proof of compliance to the Office of Probation. For a thorough review of all conditions, please refer to the enclosed copy of that portion of the disciplinary order setting forth the conditions of probation.

September 27, 2015

Should you be in possession of any funds, property, or securities on behalf of a client at any time during the period covered by your quarterly probation report, you must file with each required report, a certificate from a Certified Public Accountant or other financial professional approved by the Office of Probation. If you plan to have a financial professional other than a Certified Public Accountant, that professional must be approved by the Office of Probation prior to any certificate being filed. Enclosed is a sample certificate. Please note that this is just a sample of what a certificate may look like. You must make sure that your certificate meets the specific requirement.

You are to make good faith efforts to acquire resources to pay restitution, and your failure to make restitution will reflect adversely on your rehabilitation. In the Matter of Broderick (Review Dept. 1994) 3 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 138; In the Matter of Potack (Review Dept. 1991) 1 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 525. Financial difficulties may be considered in mitigation, not culpability, if they are extreme and result from circumstances that are not reasonably foreseeable or that were beyond your control; your entire financial condition, not just income, is to be considered. In the Matter of Taggart (Review Dept. 2001) 4 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. At 311. Because restitution is a measure of rehabilitation, you are to pay the amount ordered even if at a later date a separate agreement is obtained such that the payee will accept less (or file a motion to modify the restitution condition). Hippard v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal. 3d 1084.

You are required to report, and in no event in more than ten (10) days, to the Membership Records Office of the State Bar and the Office of Probation, all changes of information including current name, office address and telephone number, or other address for State Bar purposes as prescribed by section 6002.1 of the Business and Professions Code. The Office of Probation will only send documents to your official membership records address.

Further, please be advised that the Office of Probation does not have the authority to extend compliance due dates or modify the terms and conditions of the discipline order. Request for extension of time or modification of the terms and conditions of the discipline order must be filed with the State Bar Court Hearing Department or Review Department. See, Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California, rules 5.162 and 5.300, et seq. A copy of the motion must be served upon the Office of Probation. Failure to timely submit reports or any other proof of compliance may result in a non-compliance referral which may lead to the imposition of additional discipline.

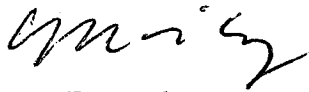

Enclosed are copies of the Supreme Court Order and conditions of probation, which you have already received from the Courts or your counsel, Rule 9.20 - California Rules of Court, Rules 5.330 and 5.332 - Rules of Procedure, Affidavit form, Multi-State Professional Responsibility Examination schedule, Quarterly Report with instructions, Client Funds Certificate, Proof of Payment instructions, and Notice of Counsel Representation form. Also enclosed is scheduling and enrollment information for the State Bar's Ethics School and Client Trust Account Record-Keeping Course.

It is recommended that you maintain a file containing all orders as well as communication between the Office of Probation and yourself. Keep your file in a convenient location so that if you have contact with the Office of Probation, any question can be quickly addressed. It is further recommended that you sign all original documents in blue so that the Office of Probation will immediately be able to ascertain whether you have provided the required original(s).

Please note that the Court has determined that the repeated need of the State Bar to actively intervene to seek compliance with disciplinary terms and conditions is inconsistent with the self-governing nature of probation as a rehabilitative part of the attorney discipline system. In the Matter of Gorman (Review Dept. 2003) 4 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 567, 573.

RE: Notice of Intent to File Notice of Disciplinary Charges
Case Number: 13-N-17445
Complainant: State Bar Investigation

Dear Attorney Byer;

With regard to the request for my response as to any clients' funds in my possession on or around October 1, 2013, my response is as follows:

On or around October 2, 2013, client funds in the amount of $8,942.43 existed in the Client Trust Funds Account for Client Vernice K. Barras (hereinafter, "Ms. Barras"). (Please see Bar Investigator Podina C. Brown's Case No. 13-O-13660.)

But for Ms. Barras' claim that she did not receive the original check earlier that year and her declination to sign a receipt for my issuance of a substitute check to her in July, 2013, those funds would have not been in the Client Trust Funds Account.

Please note that effective October 7, 2013, Ms. Barras cashed the check issued to her for $8,942.43, thereby relieving the Client Trust Funds Account of all funds due to her. Accordingly, as of October 7, 2013, no additional client funds existed in the Client Trust Funds Account or in my possession. (Please see the copy of a follow-up email response to Bar Investigator Brown, which include a copy of the Check No.8375, attached hereto as Attachment A.)

Further, I was required to reimburse the estate of Lorraine Jackson, which I did on or around January 22, 2014. (Please see copy, attached hereto as Attachment B.)

With regard to your invitation to informally discuss the instant matter with you prior to the ENEC, as stated in your letter dated January 31, 2014, please note that I called your office immediately upon my receipt of the letter the very same day. I left you a message asking that you return my call. As of the date of this response letter to you, I have not received a response phone call from you.

Please understand that it is my intent to openly and candidly respond to any inquiry you may pose regarding this investigation, I truly look forward to hearing from you and being given an opportunity to clear this matter and my record of this complaint. I am very interested in an informal discussion with you, instead of or prior to any ENEC. It is hoped, however that my written response coupled with my prior response to Investigator Brown's inquiry will be sufficient to resolve this current matter.

Sincerely yours,

Ollie P. Manago
