F. Other Conditions Negotiated by the Parties:

Additional Reproof Conditions

Respondent recognizes that a repeat conviction for DUI suggests an alcohol and/or drug problem that needs to be addressed before it affects Respondent's legal practice. Respondent agrees to take the steps necessary to control the use of alcohol and/or drugs such that it will not affect Respondent's law practice in the future. Respondent's agreement to participate in an abstinence-based self-help group (as defined herein), as a condition of discipline, is part of Respondent's efforts to address such concerns.

As a condition of reprobation, and during the period of reprobation, Respondent must attend a minimum of two (2) meetings per month of any abstinence-based self-help group of Respondent's choosing, including without limitation Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, LifeRing, S.M.A.R.T., S.O.S., etc. Other self-help maintenance programs are acceptable if they include a subculture to support recovery, including abstinence-based group meetings. (See O'Conner v. Calif. (C.D. Calif. 1994) 855 F. Supp. 303 [no First Amendment violation where probationer given choice between AA and secular program.] ) Respondent is encouraged, but not required, to obtain a "sponsor" during the term of participation in these meetings.

The program called "Moderation Management" is not acceptable because it is not abstinence-based and allows the participant to continue consuming alcohol.

Respondent must contact the Office of Probation and obtain written approval for the program Respondent has selected prior to attending the first self-help group meeting. If Respondent wants to change groups, Respondent must first obtain the Office of Probation's written approval prior to attending a meeting with the new self-help group.

Respondent must provide to the Office of Probation satisfactory proof of attendance at the meetings set forth herein with each Quarterly Report submitted to the Office of Probation. Respondent may not sign as the verifier of his or her own attendance.

Respondent is encouraged, but is not required, to participate in the Lawyers' Assistance Program, to abstain from alcohol and illegal drugs, and to undergo random urinalysis testing to complement abstinence.

STIPULATION RE FACTS, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND DISPOSITION

IN THE MATTER OF:                    RICHARD JAMES SCHNIEDERS
CASE NUMBER:                        14-C-00016

FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

Respondent admits that the following facts are true and that the facts and circumstances surrounding the offense for which he was convicted involved other misconduct warranting discipline.

Case No. 14-C-00016 (Conviction Proceedings)

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND IN CONVICTION PROCEEDING:

1. This is a proceeding pursuant to sections 6101 and 6102 of the Business and Professions Code and rule 9.10 of the California Rules of Court.
2. On December 17, 2013, Respondent was convicted of violating Vehicle Code section 23152(a) [driving under the influence], a misdemeanor. Respondent was sentenced, his conviction is final, and the time for appeal has passed.
3. On July 10, 2014, the Review Department of the State Bar Court issued an order referring the matter to the Hearing Department for a hearing and decision recommending the discipline to be imposed in the event that the Hearing Department finds that the facts and circumstances surrounding the offense for which Respondent was convicted involved moral turpitude or other misconduct warranting discipline.

FACTS:

4. On October 4, 2013, the Carlsbad Police Department responded to a call from a woman who reported that a reckless driver was driving a silver Honda on the wrong side of the road, drove over a curve, drove in circles in the roadway, then pulled into the Shell gas station.
5. The police responded to the Shell gas station and located a silver Honda sedan in the parking lot. The Honda was stopped across the painted parking spaces and the front bumper was touching the metal guardrail. The officer noticed that Respondent was seat-belted in and passed out with his head facing down. The officer could hear the car's engine running. When the officer unlocked the driver's door, he noticed that the car was in drive but was being stopped by the metal guardrail. He also smelled the odor of alcohol.
6. The officer woke Respondent, whose eyes were watery, unfocused, and whose speech was slurred. Respondent denied drinking and would not cooperate with two field sobriety tests. The officer arrested Respondent and looked inside the car. The officer observed one open bottle of vodka (375 mL, 2/3 full), one empty bottle of vodka, and two empty cans of beer (24 oz. each).

7. The officer took Respondent to the police station, where blood was drawn to check Respondent's blood alcohol level. Respondent's blood alcohol level was 0.30%.

8. On November 14, 2013, in San Diego County Superior Court case number CN325544, Respondent was charged with one count each of Vehicle Code sections 23152(a) [driving under the influence], 23152(b) [driving with 0.08 or more blood alcohol], and 23223 [possession of open container]. The charges of Vehicle Code sections 23152(a) and 23152(b) alleged that Respondent had a prior conviction for violation of Vehicle Code section 23152(b) [driving with 0.08 or more blood alcohol] on May 8, 2009 (while Respondent was a member of the State Bar).

9. On December 2, 2013, Respondent pled guilty to a misdemeanor violation of Vehicle Code section 23152(a) [driving under the influence] and admitted the prior conviction and enhancement under Vehicle Code sections 23540 [second offense within ten years] and 23578 [excessive blood alcohol]. Pursuant to the plea agreement, one count of Vehicle Code section 23152(b) was dismissed and the remaining one count of Vehicle Code section 23223 was stricken.

10. On December 17, 2013, the court suspended the imposition of sentence and placed Respondent on formal probation for a period of five years. The court ordered that Respondent, among other things, install SCRAM GPS location monitoring for alcohol monitoring and home detention by December 20, 2013 and activate by January 2, 2014, commit 90 days to the sheriff in home detention, and complete a multiple-offender DUI program.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

11. The facts and circumstances surrounding Respondent's misdemeanor conviction for a violation of Vehicle Code section 23152(a) did not involve moral turpitude but did involve other misconduct warranting discipline.

ADDITIONAL FACTS RE MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

No Prior Discipline: Respondent had practiced law for almost 23 years without a prior record of discipline when the misconduct occurred. Respondent is entitled to some mitigating credit for no prior discipline even where the underlying conduct is found to be serious or significant. (In the Matter of Riordan (Review Dept. 2007) 5 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 41, 49.)

Additional Mitigating Circumstances:

Pretrial Stipulation: Respondent has entered into a full stipulation. Respondent is entitled to mitigation for cooperating with the Office of Chief Trial Counsel prior to trial, thereby saving the State Bar Court time and resources. In addition, by entering into this stipulation, Respondent has acknowledged his misconduct and accepted responsibility for his actions. (Silva-Vidor v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 1071, 1079 [where mitigative credit was given for entering into a stipulation as to facts and culpability].)

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

The Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct "set forth a means for determining the appropriate disciplinary sanction in a particular case and to ensure consistency across cases dealing with similar misconduct and surrounding circumstances.” (Rules Proc. of State Bar, tit. IV, Stds. for Atty. Sanctions for Prof. Misconduct, std. 1.1. All further references to Standards are to this source.) The Standards help fulfill the primary purposes of discipline, which include: protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession; maintenance of the highest professional standards; and preservation of public confidence in the legal profession. (See std. 1.1; In re Morse (1995) 11 Cal.4th 184, 205.)

Although not binding, the standards are entitled to “great weight” and should be followed “whenever possible” in determining level of discipline. (In re Silvertown (2005) 36 Cal.4th 81, 92, quoting In re Brown (1995) 12 Cal.4th 205, 220 and In re Young (1989) 49 Cal.3d 257, 267, fn. 11.) Adherence to the standards in the great majority of cases serves the valuable purpose of eliminating disparity and assuring consistency, that is, the imposition of similar attorney discipline for instances of similar attorney misconduct. (In re Naney (1990) 51 Cal.3d 186, 190.) If a recommendation is at the high end or low end of a Standard, an explanation must be given as to how the recommendation was reached. (Std. 1.1.) “Any disciplinary recommendation that deviates from the Standards must include clear reasons for the departure.” (Std. 1.1; Blair v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 762, 776, fn. 5.)

In determining whether to impose a sanction greater or less than that specified in a given standard, in addition to the factors set forth in the specific standard, consideration is to be given to the primary purposes of discipline; the balancing of all aggravating and mitigating circumstances; the type of misconduct at issue; whether the client, public, legal system or profession was harmed; and the member’s willingness and ability to conform to ethical responsibilities in the future. (Stds. 1.7(b) and (c).)

Respondent’s offense does not involve moral turpitude, but does involve other misconduct warranting discipline.

Standard 2.12 is the applicable standard where a respondent has been convicted of a crime that does not on its face or in the surrounding facts and circumstances involve moral turpitude. Standard 2.12 (b) provides that “Suspension or reproof is appropriate for final conviction of a misdemeanor not involving moral turpitude but involving other misconduct warranting discipline.”

To determine the appropriate level of discipline, consideration must also be given to the aggravating and mitigating circumstances. In mitigation, Respondent has no prior record of discipline since being admitted in 1991 and has voluntarily entered into this stipulation. There are no aggravating circumstances.

Respondent has two convictions for offenses involving alcohol and driving. Respondent’s misconduct does not involve moral turpitude but is serious because it demonstrates a disregard for the law and the safety of others. However, the misconduct does not involve the practice of law and the conditions attached to this discipline, if complied with, are designed to minimize the likelihood of Respondent engaging in similar misconduct in the future. Therefore, discipline at the low end of the range discussed in Standard 2.12(b) is sufficient to achieve the purposes of discipline, protect the public, maintain the highest professional standards, and preserve public confidence in the legal profession. Accordingly, imposition of a public reproof is appropriate.

Case law also supports a public reproof. In In re Kelley (1990) 52 Cal. 3d 487, Kelly was convicted of a second driving under the influence (“DUI”) offense while on probation for a prior DUI. The Supreme Court found that the facts and circumstances surrounding Kelley’s criminal conviction constituted misconduct warranting discipline. The Supreme Court found that a public reproof was sufficient to protect the public from the threat of future professional misconduct.

In light of Respondent's misconduct in this matter, a public reproof is the appropriate level of discipline.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed Respondent that as of September 10, 2014, the prosecution costs in this matter are approximately $2,447. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

EXCLUSION FROM MCLE CREDIT

Pursuant to rule 3201, Respondent may not receive MCLE credit for completion of State Bar Ethics School. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 3201.)
