2. Respondent denies that the convictions referred amount to crimes of moral turpitude.

3. Respondent denies that his actions on May 22, 2014 which resulted in the convictions referred have any nexus to his record as a private attorney or to his fitness to practice law, and denies that his actions present an issue of public protection that warrant professional discipline.

4. Respondent submits to this Court's jurisdiction and seeks to fully cooperate in the hearing on the matter.

5. Respondent intends to present evidence in mitigation.

6. Respondent request that all future notices, orders and correspondence relating to this matter are forwarded to his current membership billing address, as follows:
