Member No. 88554)

A Member of the State Bar.)

On April 19, 2016, petitioner James Patrick Kleier sought relief from an order assessing disciplinary costs in State Bar Court case no. 14-C-00865. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.130.) Petitioner's motion requested relief from the assessed disciplinary costs. Petitioner's motion was based on financial hardship. On May 12, 2016, the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California (State Bar) filed a response. In its response, the State Bar opposed full or partial relief from costs, but did not oppose an extension of time to pay.

After reviewing the parties' pleadings, the court issues the following orders:

1. Petitioner's motion for full or partial relief from payment of disciplinary costs is DENIED, no good cause having been shown; and

2. Good cause having been shown, the court GRANTS an extension of time for Petitioner to comply with the order to pay disciplinary costs. The court orders that Petitioner's time to pay the remaining disciplinary costs associated with case no. 14-C-00865 be extended and that one-half of said costs is to be paid with Petitioner's annual State Bar membership fees for the years 2017 and 2018. The court further ORDERS that if Petitioner fails to pay any installment of disciplinary costs within the time provided herein or as may be modified by the State Bar Court pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 6086.10, subdivision (c), the remaining balance of the costs is due and payable immediately unless relief has been granted under the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.134). The payment of costs remains enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
